Edwards, Alfred Wilson "Sonny", Jr. 15599600 b. Jan. 16, 1945 d. Feb. 7, 1967-Harris Chapel Cem.-Cross Co.Veteran Bio: Alfred Wilson "Sonny" Edwards was born 16 January 1945, in Wynne, the only son of Alfred W. "Jake" and Eithel Sanders Edwards. He grew up with his three sisters, Rachel, Betty and Ruth. Sonny graduated from Wynne High School in 1963, where he was an outstanding basketball player. He worked for Proctor's Big Star and Barwick Ford Company, then attended Southern State College at Magnolia, where he was on the basketball and baseball teams.He enlisted in the army in January 1965, and served in Alaska before going to Vietnam for a year. Sonny was trained as a paratrooper and served with a paratrooper unit. While in Vietnam he participated in several battles but escaped injury .His next station was at Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he was attached to a Military Police unit. While on leave, and headed home for a visit, his car went out of control and several times. Sonny Edwards died 7 February 1967 at John Gaston Hospital, Tennessee. A military grave side service and burial was conducted at Cogbill Cemetery.

Eldridge, George Wallace Cogbill Cem.-Tstone-b: Jan.16,1868 IN Davenport, Scott, Iowa d.Feb.4,1943- Bio:George Wallace Eldridge, prominent Wynne business, civic and church leader, passed away February 4, 1943, his death was deeply mourned by his devoted family and by a wide host of friends throughout all of Eastern Arkansas for he was indeed one of the most public-spirited citizens in the history of this community. Throughout his life, which covered a span of 75 years, he always made his life count to the utmost and the positions of trust and responsibility which he held were many and important and the projects he initiated and nurtured are today among the most esteemed in the community. He held to high ideals toward which he patiently strove, and left to his fellowman a life history which is an inspiration to all., A native of Davenport, Iowa, he came to Wynne as a young man of 25 to engage in the insurance brokerage business. Mr. Eldridge organized the Wynne Federal Savings & Loan Association and the Dixie Finance Company. Among the many civic improvements he fostered and in many cases were primarily responsible for, were the paving of the city streets, installation of the deep well which supplies the city water, and the then modern white way lighting system downtown. His name will be made even more secure in the history of Wynne for his development of one of the city's most attractive residential areas, known as Eldridge Courts in North Wynne. He always will be remembered for his major role in the organization and continuance of Crowley Ridge Country Club. An ardent sports follower, he was an outstanding golfer and tennis player himself. Being an individual of many talents energetic and resourceful, he organized a business college which successfully operated in Wynne for years. A man of unquestionable integrity, he was a true Christian gentleman and took an active part in the Wynne Methodist Church of which he was a member for 25 years. Mr. Eldridge is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sue (Kelly) Eldridge; a son, George Wallace Eldridge Jr., Cashier of the Cross County Bank; three sisters, Mrs. Carl Chlegal and Mrs. George Bowden of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Kay Glaspell of Jamestown, N. C.; a grandson, Wallace Eldridge III, Wynne; and two granddaughters, Eva Ann and Karen Diane. -CC Family-Obit: born 8th of 9 children of Jacob Mullen and Mary High Williams Eldridge on a fruit farm. He attended Davenport schools and Davenport Business College. He married Sue Kelly, 1 Mar 1899 in Wynne, Cross AR. She was born 13 Feb 1875 in LaGrange, Lee, AR, dtr of John and Cynthia Kelly. They lived in Wynne where George was an agent for NY Life Insurance Co. He organized the Wynne Federal Savings and Loan Assn and Wynne-Dixie Finance Co, and was a leader in community improvements: paved streets, street lights and a deep well for city water. He organized a business college in Wynne as well as Crowley's Ridge Country Club and a residential area "Eldridge Court". They were members of the Methodist Church. George, Sue and son, George Jr are buried here.

Tstone/U.S. Army WW II/Purple Heart/Cross Co. Veteran Bio: Raithul D. Eldridge was born 13 April 1924 to Mr and Mrs. Joe Eldridge of the Harris Chapel Community. He and his sister, Mable grew up in this small but close community . He attended the New Hope School until the eighth grade then transferred to Wynne High School, graduating with the class of 1944. The summer before entering the Army, he worked at Wilks Handy Store.
Raithul prized his fox hounds and spent many hours with friends and his dogs chasing foxes. They did not kill the fox, their pleasure was in running the dogs. He was a member of the Harris Chapel Church. Community members recall his lovely singing voice and his great enjoyment in singing.He entered the Army in September 1943 and spent 13 months with an infantry regiment in the Pacific. He was wounded on Okinawa and later died of those wounds on a hospital ship on 17 April 1945. He was 21 years and four days old. His body was buried on Okinawa and two years later was returned home to be buried in Harris Chapel Cemetery .

Ellis, Robert James-Goodspeed's Bio.-b.Jan.6,1833 d.Oct.28,1905-Tyer Cem., Hydrick, Ark.-Tstone- R. J. Ellis, one of the oldest settlers of Mitchell Township, and among its leading farmers, is a native of Tennessee, and came to this county in 1856 with his father, where he purchased a farm of eighty acres, remaining upon it for three years. The he accepted a position as overseer of a large plantation owned by Jesse Cross, D. J. Burt and Maj. Wynne, a position that he held until the breaking out of the war, when he joined the Confederate army, in Company C, of the Thirteenth Arkansas Infantry, and participated in the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Richmond, Murfreesboro and a number of others. He was taken sick at Murfreesboro and sent to the hospital, where he received his discharge and returned home. He was also shot at the battle of Belmont in the arm, by a minie ball. Mr. Ellis sold his farm in 1865, and moved to Shelby County, Tenn., where he remained until 1871, engaged in farming one year, and the rest of the time operating a saw and grist-mill. In 1871 he returned to Cross County, entered 103 acres under the homestead laws, and now has sixty-one under cultivation, with good buildings. Born in Carroll County, Tenn., in 1833, he is the son of William and Elizabeth (Allin) Ellis, natives of North Carolina and Tennessee, respectively, and the parents of ten children. William Ellis moved to Arkansas in 1849, and located in this county, bought a farm of eighty acres, partially improved, and remained until 1865, then returning to Tennessee, where he died the following year; his wife survived him until 1886. Both were members of the Presbyterian Church. R. J. Ellis was married in 1856, to Miss Sophia Burks, and they became the parents of five children, two of whom are living: W. A. and Elizabeth (wife of John Stephens). Mrs. Ellis died in 1873, and Mr. Ellis married his second wife in 1875. She was formerly Miss Mollie Airs, and lived about four years after marriage. In 1881 Mr. Ellis married Mrs. Mary Robinson (nee Mitchell). Mr. and Mrs. Ellis are members of the Seven Day Baptist Church, his first and second wives having belonged to the Missionary Baptist Church. He is a member of the County Wheel and is a strong Democrat, taking an active interest in the politics of the day. --*CC Archive

Erwin,James E.-Goodspeed's Bio-James E. Erwin, merchant, Vanndale, Ark. In this brief outline of the life of this representative citizen of Cross County appear facts which are greatly to his credit, given as plainly as it is possible to put them, and without the intention of anything savoring of flattery. Mr. Erwin is a member of the general mercantile firm of Killough, Erwin & Co., of Vanndale, Ark., which business was established in 1889, and they carry a full stock of general merchandise, dry goods, groceries, clothing and plantation supplies. Mr. Erwin owes his nativity to Tennessee, and his birth occurred in 1849, and is the sixth of ten children born to W. F. and Lucinda (Tucker) Erwin, natives of Tennessee, where the father followed farming until 1856. He then came to Arkansas, settled in Hempstead County, where he remained until 1868, when he came to Poinsett County, and located near Harrisburg. He purchased a farm of over 200 acres, cleared much of it, made many improvements and here died in 1872. The mother died many years previous, about 1855. James E. Erwin divided his time in youth between assisting on the farm and in attending the common schools where he received a good practical education. At the age of nineteen years he engaged as clerk after which he kept the books of a firm in Harrisburg. In the spring of 1873 he went to Wittsburg and became a book keeper for the firm of D. Block & Co. until 1877, after which he bought an interest in the business and continued as a member of the same until the firm closed out in 1879. On February 1 of the same year Mr. Erwin, with J. W. Killough, formed the firm of Killough & Erwin, and began business at Wittsburg, continuing there until February, 1884, when they moved to Vanndale. In February, 1884, Mr. Killough sold his interest to R. Block, and for two years after this the firm continued as Block & Erwin. In 1889 Mr. Erwin sold out to his partner and soon started a new store as the present firm of Killough, Erwin & Co. This firm carries a full stock of general merchandise, dry goods, groceries, clothing and plantation supplies. Mr. Erwin was married in 1872 to Miss R. M. Wade, a native of Virginia, and the daughter of W. H. Wade, who came to Poinsett County in 1860. To the union of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin were born three children: William F. (attending school at Searcy College), Henry Gordon, and Hugh Maitland. The family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Mr. Erwin is an enterprising business man and for years identified with the commercial interests of Cross County, and is always found at the head of all improvements of a public nature. He takes a deep interest in school matters and is at present director of Vandale School. --
