Faulkner, W. A.-Goodspeed's Bio-b.1855 d.1937 Misner Cemetery, Cherry Valley-Tstone-W. A. Faulkner is a son of William and Permelia (Mullins) Faulkner. William Faulkner, Sr., was born and reared near London, England, and emigrated to this country sometime in the 40's, locating in Mississippi, and followed his trade, that of brick-mason and plasterer, until 1869 when he removed to Arkansas, settling in this county, where he entered land under the pre-emption laws. During the Rebellion, he served in the Confederate army for two years. Mrs. Faulkner died in 1859, leaving two children, W. A. (our subject) and

James T. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Faulkner was married the second time, in 1861, to Mary Jackson, who died in 1871, leaving one child, now deceased, and in 1872, he married his third wife, Mrs. Lou Smith (nee Ellis), who is still living. To this union were given four children, three of whom still live: Robert, Lillie and Edward. He and wife belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church. W.A. was born in Mississippi, in 1855, where he spend his younger days, coming to this county with his father when he was fourteen years of age. At the age of twenty-one he rented a farm which he worked for three years. He then bought his present farm of 240 acres, which he works, besides one of 160 acres belonging to his wife. His farm is considered among the finest in the county, having good buildings upon it, a large orchard of some seven or eight acres and good stock. H e was married in 1879, to Mrs. Sarah Bowers (nee Aldrigh). They are the parents of two children: I.H. and N.B. His wife has been married three times, her first husband being James Stephenson, her second husband Jacob Bowen, who lived only one month after their marriage, and the third, Mr. Faulkner. Mr. Faulkner is an enterprising and industrious farmer and highly respected by all who know him. --*CC Archive

Fountain, William-Goodspeed's Bio-b.Apr.13,1829 d.Jul.28,1917-Misner Cem., Cherry Valley-Tstone William Fountain, one of the oldest and most respected farmers in Cross

County, was born in 1829 to the union of Cary and Sarah (Powers) Fountain, natives of North Carolina and of English descent, the paternal grandfather of our subject coming to this country from England. Cary Fountain was a farmer by occupation, and a slave owner. The paternal grandfather served in the Revolutionary War after emigrating to this country, and the maternal grandfather served in the American Navy. Cary Fountain was the father of six children, two of whom only are living: Maria (wife of Wyatt Earp of North Carolina) and William (our subject). The latter was reared on a farm in North Carolina, his native State, and at the age of fourteen engaged in teaming, hauling turpentine, in which occupation he was engaged for two or three years. He was afterward occupied in clerking in a dry-goods store for some years, and then learned the carpenter's trade, at which he worked about twenty years. Mr. Fountain has been married three times; first to Martha A. Cutchins, who died in 1855, leaving four children, one surviving, George A., who resides in this county. His second wife was Clara A. Parker, a native of Tennessee; she was a member of the Methodist Church and died in 1880, leaving one child now deceased. In 1880, Mr. Fountain was married to his third and present wife, Mrs. Charlotte Temple Martin (nee Shaver) b.Jun.11,1847 d.Dec.9,1938-Misner Cem.. They are the parents of two children: Cary E. and Ernest H. In 1849 he left North Carolina for Tennessee, and remained there until 1860, when he came to Cross County, Ark., locating on the place on which he now resides. This then consisted of 140 acres, upon it there being a log-cabin, with ten or twelve acres of land under cultivation. He now owns 827 acres, 100 under cultivation, and raises a large amount of stock, which costs but little to keep through the winter. Mr. Fountain is a member of the Masonic lodge, and holds the office of Junior Warden. He was formerly a notary public of Cross County, and has held the office of constable for about six years, serving as school director for some twenty years. He is also president of the County Wheel, and is one of the prominent Democrats of the county. --*CC Archive-Fountain, William---Searcy, Cross, Arkansas-abt 1829-North Carolina-Self (Head)-1880 Census

Futrell, Alexander-Goodspeed's Bio.-b.Nov.11,1830 d.Dec.4,1905-Vanndale Cem.-Tstone Alexander Futrell, farmer and stock raiser of Vanndale, Ark. Among the influential and respected citizens of Cross County, Ark., there is no one more justly entitled to representation in this work than Alexander Futrell. He was born in Northampton County, N. C., in 1830; was taught the duties of farm life when quite young and received his education in the common schools. At the age of twenty-one he came to Arkansas, settled in Poinsett County, where he engaged as overseer until the outbreak of the war. He then enlisted in Company A, Fifth Arkansas Regiment Infantry, was in the battles of Shiloh, Perryville, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Nashville and Franklin, and was in ten other of the principal engagements, besides many skirmishes. He was in the battle of Raleigh, N. C., and two days later surrendered at Greensboro, N. C. He then made a visit to his old home, where he spent three months, then returned to Cross County, Ark., settling on a tract of 160 acres of wild land, one mile west of the present city of Vanndale. In 1868 he marries Miss Isabella F. Lewellen, b.1844 d.Aug.8,1899-Vanndale Cem., daughter of James A. and Nancy E. Lewellen, after which he removed to his new home, erected buildings and made many improvements. At the end of four years he had eight acres under cultivation and has a pleasant and comfortable home. He raises a variety of crops and can make three-fourths of a bale of cotton to the acre and forty bushels of corn. By his marriage Mr. Futrell became the father of these children: Eddie E. (died at the age of seven years), John Lewellen, James A., Blanchard W., Mary B., Gordon C., Emma M., Ernest H., Pearl. Gordon C died at the age of six years; Ernest H. at the age of six months. The family are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Mr. Futrell is one of the most progressive and enterprising farmers of the county; is honest, industrious and a man who has the respect of all. He is the youngest son born to John and Charity Futrell, and was left fatherless when a child. The father was also a farmer and was born, reared and passed his last days in the same county. --*CC Archive
