Tstone-U.S. Navy WW II/*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio- Alfred Utley Kelley was born 16 December 1917 in Parkin, Arkansas, the son of Alfred (Fred) and Bertha Coldren Kelley. He was the first baby delivered in Parkin by Dr. Utley and was named after him. He grew up with two brothers, Harry and Henry, and two sisters, Ethel and Bea. Alfred attended Parkin High School and then followed in the footsteps of his older brother, Harry, who he idolized. He played professional baseball in the Major Southern League. He went to spring training at Daytona Beach, Florida and played in Racine, Wisconsin; Greenville, Mississippi and numerous other cities. He entered the Navy in Nashville, Tennessee in February 1942 and was sent for basic training at the USNTS, San Diego, California. He attended school at the Naval Training School at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin in April 1942 and graduated as a RM3c. He was transferred on 31 July 1942 to the USS YMS 109 from the Naval Receiving Station in New York to New Orleans, Louisiana. He later was sent to the UMS 201 in Brooklyn, New York in November 1943. From 29 March 1943 to March 1944, he served outside the States and in March 1945, he was transferred to the Naval Training Station, Newport, Rhode Island for training and assignment to auxiliary vessels. Alfred served on the USS Donner; USS YMS 109 in New Orleans; the YMS 201 and the SeaBas, Tompkinsville, N.Y. In September 1945, he was discharged at NOVA, Norfolk, Virginia. Alfred married Mildred Louise Thompson and after her death, he married Margaret Mary Landers. Alfred was the father of four children: Henry, Carolyn, Stephen and Donna. After the military, he occasionally played baseball for charity at the old Parkin Ball Field, south of Parkin. Tstone/Picture/Obit-28-Mar-58 Services Held For Harry Kelley Harry Leroy Kelley, the original "Parkin Kid", died at his home near Parkin Sunday, March 23, at the age of 52. He had been sick a long time and spent a lot of time in the Baptist Hospital in Memphis the past several months. Mr. Kelley was well known to baseball fans throughout the South having served some ?1 years in organized baseball as a pitcher, mostly in the Southern League. He pitched for the Memphis Chicks all or part of 10 seasons and was a consistent 20-game winner. He was noted for his iron man roles, pitching Sunday double-headers on home appearances mainly. He also pitched for New Orleans, Birmingham and Atlanta. His record in the league was 173 victories and 15 defeats. During his baseball career, Kelley had parts of six seasons in the majors, his best years being with the Philadelphia Athletics where he had records of 15-12 and 13-21, and 9-8 and 4-3 records with the Washington Senators. Kelley came by the name of "Parkin Kid" legitimately having been signed to play pro ball when only 16 years of age. The name stuck with him until his retirement. Funeral services were held at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon at the First United Methodist Church in Parkin with the Rev. Charles Lewis officiating. Burial was in Cogbill Cem. near Wynne with Citizens Funeral Home of West Memphis in charge. He leaves his wife; two sons, Bryan Kelley of Earle, and Harry Kelley Jr. of Gulfport, Miss.; his mother, Mrs. Bertha Kelley of Parkin; a brother, Alfred Kelley of Parkin, and a sister, Mrs. A. L. Stephens of Parkin. Note: Harry Kelley's birthdate was February 13, 1906. He passed away in his home in Parkin with his family present. Harry Kelley started playing baseball in 1922 when he was sixteen. Kelley broke into the bigs on April 16, 1925 with the Washington Senators. His fans say that his best year was 1936, his rookie year. Per Carolyn Kelley 3/11/08 Harry Kelley played from 1923 to 1944 and he was known for his "ironman throws". I saw one more thing (he won 265 games in the minors). His "ironman throw" was pitching two straight innings. Thanks to Carolyn Kelley for this information 9/2/08. Per Brenda Huntley

Tstone/Picture/Obit-James Henry Kelley was the second son of Alfred (Fred) Kelley and Bertha Coldren Kelley. He attended school in Parkin and then followed in his brother, Harry Kelley's footsteps and started playing baseball. Although, his career was short he was noted for really being a good player. At 18, Henry signed with the Memphis Chicks. Kelley had received offers from both St. Louis Clubs and other major league managements. He signed with the Texarkana Twins, April 16, 1927. He was married to Lois Kelley from Forest City and had a son, Jimmy Kelley and they divorced and he married Thelma Kelley. They had two daughters, Mary Elizabeth(Betty)and Henrietta Kelley. When Henry was not playing baseball he was helping his grandfather at the Northern Ohio Cooperage Lumbermill. Henry was bringing a load into the company and when he checked the chains, the chains broke and the logs fell on him. He was injured December 11, 1933. Veteran Bio: Freeman Pershing "Mickey" Kennon was born 8 March 1919 in Donaphan, Missouri, the son of Thomas and Pearl Freeman Kennon. He grew up with two brothers, Lowell and Homer; two sisters, Syna and Thelma; six half sisters and two half brothers. Mickey attended Donaphan High School and then was employed in the shipyard in Portland, Oregon as a rigger. Mickey entered the Anny 11 August 1944 and received his basic training at Camp Robinson, Arkansas. He was then transferred to Fort Meade, Maryland and then to Fort Ord, California. He served with the 7th Calvary and they were sent to the Philippine Islands. On Luzon he faced one on one combat with the enemy and was hit in the leg by shrapnel, but was lucky enough to be picked up by a small plane that took him to a hospital in Manila For this injury, he was awarded the Purple Heart. After three months, he returned to his company and remained in the Philippine Islands until the end of the war. After the Peace Treaty was signed, they were sent to Japan with the Occupation Troops. He was stationed in Tokyo until he was returned to the States for his discharge 6 February 1946.Mickey married Betty Eason and they had two sons, Tillman and Steve, and three daughters, Darlene, Marsha and Michele. He was a Construction Contractor in Cross County until poor health forced his retirement. His hobbies have been turkey hunting, deer hunting and going to car races. Freeman Pershing Kennon died 21 January 2001 and was buried in Lewis Cemetery, near Hickory Ridge, Arkansas.

Kettell, Becky Sue--*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio-Becky Sue Kettell was born 21 October

1930 in Jonesboro, Arkansas, the daughter of Hollister H. and Pauline Brown Kettell. She grew up with one half-brother, B.M. Futrell, Jr. and an adopted sister, Karen. Sue attended Jonesboro High School and Omaha Central High School, Omaha, Nebraska. She worked as a store clerk and multigraph operator before entering the military. Sue was inducted into the Army 19 August 1949 and took her basic training at Camp Lee, Virginia. She was a part of Company D and they were the first women to go on bivouac and the rifle range. After basic, she was sent to Clerk- Typist School at Fort Dix, New Jersey and was among the first 100 WACs to be billeted there. Her assignments included work with discharges other than honorable, mostly 368s and 369s and hardships. After Sue finished basic, she married Ronald Lundy, and when he was transferred the next year, she requested a discharge. Sue was discharged 8 September 1950. Sue and Ronald had six children: Mary Frances, Floyd K., Rhonda Sue, Paula Gail, Holly B., and Micheal J. After Ronald's death, Sue married Eameste Climer and they live in Wynne. There are strong military ties in Sue's family: her Dad retired from the Army; she has a son in the Navy; two grandsons have served in the Navy; and a grandson-in-law now serving in the Army in Korea. During the forty years she has lived in Wynne, she has worked in an office, as a jobber and as a home health aide (CNA).

Kettell, Hollister H.-*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio-Hollis Kettell retired from the U.S. Army in the 1950's, as a major, after 24 years in the service. He served in Japan, Manila, Germany and all over the United States. He grew up in Vanndale, AR, with his father being a member of the School Board, a farmer and store owner. He left home at 16 after a dispute with his father and moved to Wynne and cleaned a saloon on Front St., until he was old enough to get into the military. His temper, he was red-headed, continued to get him into trouble. He slugged a sergeant his second day in the service and was about to be court martialed when they discovered he had not yet been sworn into service due to an oversight. After that he settled down and became a model soldier. He rose up through the ranks and was sent to college by the Army and became an officer. He served at the Japanese Embassy in Tokyo before WWII. He married Annabelle Nold in 1937. He adopted his daughter (Karen) out of a German Orphanage while he and his wife were stationed there for 3 years in the early 1950's. Hollis Kettell died 2 April 1982, and is buried at Crosslawn Cemetery. Annabelle died in 2007 and is buried next to him. The above information was provided to the Veterans Committee by their daughter Karen Busby.Kettell, Hollister-12-Jan-11-Apr-82-71-72396 (Wynne--SSDI

Killough, John Neil--*CC Bank Vet.Memorial-Bio-John Neil Killough was born 29 July 1924 in Memphis, Tennessee,the son of Neil and Lucy Armstrong Killough. He graduated Wynne High School, Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, the University of Arkansas and University of Arkansas Law School. He entered the Army in July 1943 and received his basic training at the Armored Training Center, Fort Knox, Kentucky. In February 1944, he was sent to England as a member of an armored replacement pool; moved to the European Theater in August 1944 and joined the Second Armored Division in Holland in early September 1944. There he became a crew member of a Sherman Tank; initial military actions were near Aachen, Germany; other actions were in the Ruhr River Area near Aachen and the Rhine River. These engagements lasted until after Thanksgiving 1944. The German offensive, later known in history as "The Battle of the Bulge" began December 1944. The Second Armored was ordered back to Belgium to help stop the German Spearhead. The Division's efforts were successful, and the last element of the German Army retreated from Belgium in the latter part of January 1945. After other military engagements west of the Rhine river, the Division made a successful crossing of the River in March of 1945. The Division continued to advance into the heartland of Germany until it reached the Elbe River near the city of Magdeburg. While at Magdeburg, President Truman ordered that no more advance toward Berlin would be made and that the Russians would be permitted to capture the city. The gladly accepted the order. It was later learned that the Russians had over 100,000 casualties in taking Berlin. After World War II ended in May 1945 a decision was made whereby the city would be occupied by troops from Britain, Russia, France and the United States. The Second Armored was chosen to represent the United States, and it moved into Berlin July 1945. The heads of state of the allied countries held a conference (known as the Potsdam Conference) during July. The division passed in review before Churchill, Truman, (Stalin was absent) Generals Eisenhower, DeGaulle, Marshall, Arnold, Montgomery, Patton, Temoshenko and Bradley. In August 1945, the division was transferred to a former German Army post near Frankfurt for occupation duty. Killough returned home on an emergency furlough in October 1945 and was discharged in November 1945. He had earned the European Theater of Operations Ribbon with Stars for battle engagements and as a member of Second Armored Division - the Division received a Presidential Citation and Fourage're from the Belgium government for its accomplishments in helping to stop the German offensive during the Ardennes Forest Campaign. Following his discharge in November 1945, John and Esther Williams were married and they have three sons: Oliver Neil Killough, II, Stephen Malone and Walter Kyle. John returned to school and completed pre-law and his law degree. He started his law practice 1 July 1950 and retired 1 July 2000. John's hobbies are tennis, golf and walking.

Killough, John Wesley--*CC Bank Vet.Memorial-Bio-John Wesley Killough was born 6 September 1840 in St. Francis County, Arkansas, the youngest and only living son of John George and Fannie P. Killough. He married Mary E. Rooks and they were the parents of Oliver N. (lawyer in Vanndale), Ida Estella (wife of George P. Gardner, Man1moth Spring), and John Wesley, Jr. (clerk in Man1moth Spring). John W. engaged in farm labor until the breaking out of the war, when he enlisted in the Confederate Army, in the Twenty-third Arkansas Infantry. He participated in battles at Luka, Mississippi, Cornith, Pocahontas (Tennessee), and at the siege of Port Hudson, and many skirmishes. After the seizure of Port Hudson, he was paroled and returned home, and after his exchange assisted to organize a company, in which he was commissioned Second Lieutenant, and served principally in Eastern Arkansas. John W. returned twice during the war to bury children who died of smallpox. At the close of hostilities, Mr. Killough again commenced farming until 1869 when he engaged in the mercantile business in Poinsett County .He came to Wittsburg, Arkansas, in 1873 and in 1879 entered into a partnership with Mr .Erwin. They relocated to Vanndale in 1884 and in 1887 Mr .R. Block bought the Killough interest. John W. built a hotel and several residences at Vanndale, and was a Director of Cross County Bank from 1902 its organization until January 1902. John Wesley Killough died 7 May 1914 and was buried in Vanndale Cemetery, Cross County, Arkansas.

Neil Killough was reared in Cross County: graduated from Vanderbilt University with a Law Degree: and was licensed practice law by the Arkansas Supreme Court in June 1917. He married Lucy Armstrong and their only child was John Neil Killough. In 1917 he joined the Army and served throughout World War I as a First Lieutenant with the Infantry Regiment of the 87th Division. Eight months of his service was spent in France. Immediately upon his discharge, he again began his law practice with his brother and father. This continued until his father's death in 1926. He served one term of Mayor of Wynne, when streets were paved and lights installed. He was awarded a loving cup by popular vote of the citizens of Wynne in token of their appreciation of his unselfish and outstanding services to the city. He was elected Circuit Judge and served until he took a leave of absense to enter the Army. His hobbies were golf, tennis and duck hunting. On leave of absence as Second Judicial Circuit Court Judge, he re-joined the Army in 1943. Neil served as Provost Marshal at Houston, Texas; Beaumont, Texas; and other Texas camps. While serving in Texas, he died of a heart attack in his Houston hotel room. He was 59 years old. Neil Killough died 2 October 1945 and was buried in Cogbill Cem.. WW I Draft Reg. b.Ark.

Killough, Oliver Newton, Lieut. 9031316 b. Mar. 25, 1919 d. Jun. 13, 1944-Cogbill Cem. Tstone-Purple Heart-*CC Bank Vet.Memorial -Bio-Oliver Newton Killough was born 25 March 1919 in Wynne, the only child of Walter Newton and Marion Cogbill Killough.

Newton grew up in Wynne and was a popular member of the Wynne High School Class of 1936. After High School he attended Arkansas State College, Jonesboro for a year and then transferred to the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, where he received his bachelor's degree in 1941 and his law degree in January 1942. A brilliant student, he always ranked with the best in his class. In the bar examination, which he took just before going into the Army, he made the highest grade in his group and next to the highest grade of record in any bar examination. At the University he was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, Phi Alpha Delta, honorary legal fraternity, and Scabbard and Blade, a military honor society. He was also a member of the Law School Honor Council in 1940 and of the Razorback Band from 1937 to 1939. He had planned to enter the law firm of Killough and Killough and practice law with his father and uncle, but entered the Army instead in January 1942. Newton had received military training in ROTC at the University of Arkansas and entered the Army in January 1942 as a second lieutenant. He was sent to Camp Roberts, California, for three months and then to Camp Barkley, Texas, where he remained except for a short special course at Ft. Benning, Georgia, until he went on desert maneuvers in Arizona late in 1943. Home on leave in January 1945, he went to Fort Dix, New Jersey, and to England in early March. He was a member of a mobile infantry regiment and in charge of a 105 mm gun at the time he went overseas. Newton was killed in action on the Normandy front on 13 June 1944. His parents received a letter from him , written in England early in June saying that he was going into action soon, but that he and his companions knew they were fighting for right, that God was with them, and that they were ready to accept whatever might come to them. Oliver Newton Killough is buried along side his family in Cogbill Cem., Wynne, Arkansas.

Tstone w/Mary Elizabeth/*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio-William Estes Kinman, Jr. was born 1 January 1922 in Lexa, Arkansas, the son of William Estes, Sr. and Myrtle Sawyer Kinman. W.E. grew up with one sister, Ella Mae, and three brothers, Flynn, Ted, and Ken. He graduated from Lexa High School in the Class of 1940. Before joining the Air Force, he worked as a PCA officer in Marianna, Arkansas. W. E. was inducted 5 February 1943 and served until 19 December 1945. He worked as a Supply Sergeant in England and France. He was awarded several medals, but a fire destroyed many of his records. W. E. married Mary Elizabeth Bowers and their children are W .E., III (Kiki) and Tanya. W. E. owned and operated a grocery store, and then was owner and operator the Oklahoma Tire and Supply Company in Wynne for many years. He enjoyed fishing, reading and gardening. William Estes Kinman, Jr. died 13 August 1992 and was buried in Wynne beside his son. Per Brenda Huntley. SSDI d.Wynne
