Maddox, Herman Peay-Bio-Herman Peay Maddox, who ranks high among the prominent lawyers of Arkansas, has engaged in practice in Harrisburg since 1912, and his constantly increasing ability has brought him continuous recognition in a large and distinctively representative clientage. He is of Scotch-Irish ancestry on both paternal and maternal sides. His ancestors came to this country at an early day and became prominent figures in the public life of the communities in which they resided. Herman P. Maddox was born in Rockport, Ohio county, Kentucky, on the 14th of June, 1884, a son of James E. and Verda (Gentry) Maddox. His father, who is living in Harrisburg at the age of sixty-seven years, is active in the milling business and is achieving more than substantial success in that connection. For many years the father was engaged in farming in Ohio county, Kentucky, the county of his birth. He was married in Ohio county in 1880, to Miss Verda Gentry, who is also living at the age of sixty-seven years. She was born and reared in that county, her family having been among the pioneer settlers there. To the union of Mr. and Mrs. Maddox ten children were born, seven boys and three girls. Five sons and the three daughters are living. Two sons died in infancy. Herman P., whose name initiates this review, was the second in order of birth. Herman P. Maddox received his early education in the common schools of Ohio county, Kentucky, and after graduating from the high school at Beaver Dam, that state, entered the Bryant & Stratton Business College at Louisville. After completing his course there he started out in the business world as assistant cashier of the Rockport Deposit Bank at Rockport, a position he held for two years, 1905-07. At the end of that time he came to Arkansas and located in

Cherry Valley, where he was employed as cashier with the Bank of Cherry Valley, and this position he held for five years. During his spare time he took up the study of law and in 1910 was admitted to practice in the circuit and chancery courts. He remained with the bank, however, until January, 1912, when he went to Wynne, Arkansas, and began the active practice of law, which he continued there until October, 1912. He then removed to Harrisburg, established his office and began practice independently. He soon built up a distinctively representative clientage. He has concentrated his time, energies and attention upon his professional duties and the work that he has done as advocate and counselor indicates clearly his familiarity with the principles of jurisprudence and an analytical power that enables him correctly to apply those principles to the question under consideration. On April 5, 1915, Mr. Maddox was admitted to practice before the state supreme court and on October 5th, following, he was admitted to the federal court. In 1916 he was elected deputy prosecuting attorney of Poinsett county and was active in that office for two years. He is now a member of the local city council. Although the greater part of Mr. Maddox's time is devoted to his professional interests, he is well known in financial circles as a stockholder in the Bank of Cherry Valley, at Cherry Valley, this state. On the 21st of February, 1909, occurred the marriage of Mr. Maddox to Miss Ruth Halk, a daughter of George and Anna Halk, well known residents of Cherry Valley. To their union four children were born: Edward Stacey, twelve years of age; Maurine, ten years of age; Vivian, aged six; and Herman Peay, Jr., aged five. Mrs. Maddox's demise occurred on the 19th of October, 1918, at Harrisburg, and came as a severe blow to her family and many friends. The religious faith of the family is that of the Baptist church, to the support of which Mr. Maddox is a generous contributor. Fraternally he is a Scottish Rite Mason; a member of Poinsett Lodge, No. 184, A. F. & A. M., of Harrisburg; Arkansas Consistory, No. 1, Little Rock; and Sahara Temple of the Mystic Shrine at Pine Bluff. He is likewise affiliated with Lodge No. 1080, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of Paragould and Cherry Valley Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Along strictly professional lines he is identified with the Arkansas State Bar Association. During the World war Mr. Maddox was chairman of the legal advisory board and a Four-Minute man, making many speeches throughout the county in behalf of various war activities. He is readily conceded to be a public-spirited citizen of Harrisburg and is recognized as a man of well-rounded character, whose interests are varied and who at all times keeps in close touch with the trend of modern thought and progress. Mauppin, Earl 10329485 b. May 8, 1921 d. Aug., 1976-Harris Chapel Cem.-Tstone/U.S. Army WW II/Cross Co.Veteran Bio: Earl Mauppin was born 8 May 1921 in Wynne, Arkansas. He was one of eight children born to Wilbur and Eddie Harris Mauppin. His brothers and sisters were Harris (Jab), Carl, Andrew, Cleo, Inez, Mabel and Peggy. He attended New Hope School and worked on the family farm before entering the military. Earl entered the Army 3 September 1940 at Forrest City, Arkansas. After three months of basic training, he received more advanced training to become a Rifleman Instructor 745. He left the States 15 July 1941 from IRTC Camp Roberts, California and arrived at the Asiatic Pacific Theater of Operations 23 July 1941. His unit fought in the Aleutian Islands in an effort to force the entrenched Japanese Army to surrender. While the Aleutians, Earl's Battalion was selected for a part in the movie "G. I. Joe". Earl had a part where he came from behind a building and opened fire on the enemy. The movie was a great morale builder and gave the folks back home a picture of what our troops were exposed to on the front lines. He left the South Pacific 7 March 1944 and arrived back in the States 19 March 1944. He served the remainder of his service commitment as a Rifle Instructor and was discharged 15 August 1945. He was awarded the Asiatic Service Ribbon with one Service Star; the American Defense Service Ribbon with one Bronze Star and the Good Conduct Medal. Earl returned to Wynne and farmed a few months. He married Jewel Munn and they had two children, Martha and Patsy Mauppin. Earl started to work for the Arkansas Highway Department and worked there for 32 years. His

*CC Bank Vet.Memorial -Bio-William Edward "Ed" McCormick was born 29 May 1915 in Grenada, Mississippi, one of twin sons of William Edward and Nan Barwick McCormick.
He grew up with two brothers, Clifton Henry and Lee (his twin). Ed graduated from Grenada High School and continued his education at Southwestern (now Rhodes) College in Memphis, Tennessee. Ed was manager of United Insurance Service. Ed entered the military as an Aviation Cadet in December 1941 and was commissioned 21 March 1942.
He served as an aerial navigator throughout the war. After training at Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas, he spent eleven months in the South Pacific, mainly in the Solomon Islands under very primitive conditions. In March 1943 on the Island of Espiritu Santo, he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. At that time he had completed 700 hours flying time as navigator on B-17s, with 227 of these being combat hours. In 1943 he was transferred to the Air Transport Command ferrying planes, mainly to Hawaii and Australia. During the last two years of the war he was based in California; at Randolph Field near San Francisco and at Mather Field, Sacramento. He was discharged 7 September 1945, having earned the Distinguished Flying Cross and two other decorations. Ed married Alys Townes and they were the parents of three children, Leta, Bill and Sarah. At the end of the war he returned to Wynne. For a few years he was employed as Parts Manager by his uncle, H.K. Barwick, at his Ford dealership. He then became an insurance agent for First pyramid Life Insurance Company. Although business, family, and church took their fair share of his time, Ed enjoyed his hobbies. The most important one was amateur radio, and he was an active ham with many contacts and friendships with other enthusiasts and members of the emergency network. He was

McElroy, A. J.-Goodspeed's Bio-A. J. McElroy, served four years in the Confederate service during the late war as a member of Company B, McRae's Regiment, and participated in the battles of Helena, Red River, Prairie Grove and a number of other battles and skirmishes, remaining in the field of duty until the surrender in 1865. Leaving home at age twenty-six he engaged in farming on 160 acres of land which he had bought in this county, and where he still resides. He now has upward of 100 acres under cultivation, with good buildings and good stock. Mr. McElroy was born in Georgia in 1833, as the son of John and Mary (Stephenson) McElroy, natives of South Carolina. Soon after the latter's marriage, he came to Georgia, remaining until 1848, when he moved to Arkansas, settling in this county, where he entered 480 acres of land. Here he lived until his death in 1866, at the age of sixty-eight years. He was four times married. His first wife, Miss Shy, became the mother of one child, now deceased. By his second wife (Miss Belk) he had five children, only one of whom survives: J. C. (of this county). After her death, Mr. McElroy was married to Mary Stephenson, who died in 1859 (continues on page 370). McElroy, J. C.-Goodspeed's Bio- J. C. McElroy, the subject of this sketch and prominent in the affairs of his county and known to all as a law-abiding citizen, was born in the State of Georgia in 1827, as the son of John and M. S. (Belk) McElroy). Mr. McElroy was reared on a farm, and removed with his father, John McElroy, to Arkansas in the year of 1848, and the following year married Miss Sara C. Lantroupe. Then settling and adjoining farm to his father, he has since lived there. Mr. McElroy was put on detached duty by the Confederate Government during the war, and had charge of the Government tanyards; also served in the postal service during that conflict. He was justice of the peace for several years, and also acted as a county judge from 1868 till 1874, since which time he has taken no active part in politics. Mr. and Mrs. McElroy are the parents of nine children, three of whom are still living: John W., Sallie (wife of James A. Sadler) and Emmett L. (all residents of this county). Mr. and Mrs. McElroy are strict members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The former is also a member of the A. F. & A. M. He is one of the prominent farmers of Bedford Township and a highly respected citizen. John W. McElroy, the oldest son, has been county surveyor of Cross County for six years. --*CC Archive-Wife:-S. Cogbill Cem.-Tstone w/Dorothy-Obit-John Edward "Jack" McNeil, Jr., 84, of Little Rock, formally of Parkin, joined the church triumphant on May 25, 2007. Jack was born in Fort Smith, Arkansas on October 3, 1922, the son of John Edward and Minnie Greene McNeil.
He graduated from Fort Smith High School (now Northside High School) in 1939. He graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1946. He was a 65+ Year member of the Fabulous Xi chapter of Kappa Sigma. While at the University he met the love of his life, Dorothy Jean "Dot" Baker. They were married in 1946. They moved to Dot's hometown of Parkin. Their daughters, Cindy and Marsha were born there. Cindy was diagnosed with a brain tumor at the age of 9 and after a two year battle died in 1960. Jack engaged in farming for eight years. After that Jack started the McNeil Insurance Agency in Parkin which grew into agencies in Earle and Wynne, AR. He retired in 1986. Soon after that his attention would turn to caring for Dot who was battling cancer. Jack and his family lost Dot in 1990. Jack was a former member of the Parkin City Council, Parkin First State Bank Board of Directors, Parkin Housing Authority, Cross County Library Board, Crowley Ridge Country Club, Wynne Rotary Club (Paul Harris Fellow) and the Board of Trustees of the Cross County Hospital (now the Cross Ridge Hospital). He was also a former justice of the peace for Cross County. He very much enjoyed serving as the first commissioner and P.A. announcer of Parkin Little League Baseball. Twice, Jack served as president of the Independent Insurance Agents of Arkansas where he also chaired and served on many state and national committees. In 1983 he was awarded the Allen Kennedy

Memorial Award which is the highest honor the Independent Insurance Agents Association of Arkansas can bestow on an agent. He was chairman of the Independent Insurance Agents of American Small Town and Farm Agent Committee 1987-91 and Chairman of the Mid-American Conference Farm Committee 1985-88. Jack loved the Razorbacks. While attending the U of A he was a member of the Razorback track team. He always pointed out that was before the team was so good! He was also a spotter for the Razorback football game announcer. He was a loyal and vocal Hog fan all of his life. Jack also enjoyed traveling. He was proud that he had visited all fifty states. He and Dot traveled to many great places on behalf of the insurance industry. He always said the insurance business had been very good to him. Jack also enjoyed researching genealogy. He traveled to Scotland many times. Once he stayed and worked at The Iona Abbey, one of Scotland's most historic and sacred sites, founded in AD563. He was very proud of his Scottish heritage wearing his McNeil tartan sport jacket regularly and on occasion his kilt. As a result of his genealogy research he compiled two books, The Nine Greene Sisters of Benton County Arkansas is about his mother and her eight sisters and their families. The Slocum Family of Cross County Arkansas, chronicles Dot's grandmother's family. Several years ago Jack established an endowed scholarship at the University of Arkansas Fort Smith. Since Jack grew up in Fort Smith, he wanted to give back to his hometown. The scholarship is awarded to a graduate of Northside High School, his alma mater. Per Patricia Heath

Melhorn, Jr. was born in Memphis, Tennessee 16 April 1920, the son of Harry H. and Frances S. Melhorn. He graduated from Parkin High School and attended the University of Arkansas for three years. Harry enlisted in the Army Air Corps on 16 September 1941. After basic training, he was sent to Keesler Field at Biloxi, Mississippi where he went through the First Aircraft Mechanics School. After his training, he was assigned to the 34th Air Depot Group, a major aircraft repair outfit consisting of about 1500 men. It was composed of an Administration Squadron, Supply Squadron and a Maintenance Squadron. Harry was assigned to the Maintenance Squadron. After completing more training in California, Harry boarded a troop ship at Staten Island, New York for an eleven day and night trip to Casablanca, Morocco. There he was engaged in repairing P-38s, P-51s and B-17 Bombers and helping scared young pilots get ready for missions into war . Harry was then shipped across Africa to Bizerti aboard a 40 & 8 (a rail car holding forty men and eight horses which many WW I Vets will remember), a trip that lasted seven days and nights. His outfit was to join up with General Patton's 3rd Army for its invasion of Sicily. He said, "We followed General Patton all the way (not too close!) on his trip through Europe. I was once sent with a detachment to Southern France to try to find more gas for General Patton, whose attack across Europe had stalled because of the shortage of gasoline." This thirty-six month tour of service took Harry from North Africa to Sicily, Naples-Foggia Campaign, Rome-Amo, North Appennines, Po Valley and Southern France. During his tour of duty, he earned the Good Conduct Medal, the American Defense Service Medal, the EAME Service Ribbon with one Silver Star and one Bronze Service Star. After Germany surrendered, Harry was told to prepare to go to the Pacific Theater, in preparation for the invasion of Japan, "but the A-bomb saved us and we sure were glad the war was over." Harry was discharged 7 September 1945 at Fort Chaffee, Arkansas and returned to Parkin where he married Margrave Paul on 14 March 1946. He and his wife were the parents of five children: Michael Paul; Johnson Paul; Harry, III; Mary Rebecca and Scott. He has spent three years operating a grocery and forty seven years farming before retiring in Parkin. For many years Harry talked with five of the men who shared the 40 & 8 with him. Harry H. Miller, Elizabeth "Carrie" m.Robinson, Mrs. 30972811 b. Nov. 11, 1905 d. Mar. 22, 2000- Cogbill Cem. Tstone/Picture-Obit-"At 94, for reasons known only to herself, Carrie Miller, of Wynne, Arkansas, decided it was time to die. "She planned her passing in the meticulous, unflinching fashion for which she was known, even taking the time to leave a short note for her longtime housekeeper, Mabel. Her explanation was brief and to the point: You'll find me in my car, in the same place my husband was killed. Raymond Miller died in 1938. Carrie Miller never remarried. "When she finished writing the note, sometime during the afternoon of March 15, Miller left it on her kitchen table. She knew Mabel would find it there. "Then the elderly woman climbed into her 1999 Buick Century and headed down U.S. 64 toward the St. Francis Bay Bridge. She stopped briefly to ask a Highway and Transportation Department employee how to get to a specific boat ramp. She then drove her Buick directly and deliberately off that ramp and into a tributary of the St. Francis River. "As the current swept her car several hundred yards down the river's offshoot, Miller shut off the engine. She put her car in park. And then, with the windows rolled firmly shut and her seat belt still fastened, Miller calmly waited to die. "As planned, she was in nearly the same spot her husband died more than 60 years ago, when his car slid off an old, icy, wooden bridge" (Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, March 25, 2000).per Delia Jones. Miller, Jack Dearing 12098947 b. Nov. 29, 1935 d. Nov. 21, 1974- Halk Cem.Cherry Valley-Tstone/U.S. Army:Cross Co.Veteran Bio: Jack Dearing Miller was born in 1935 in Cherry Valley, Arkansas, the youngest of ten children born to James Henry and Willie Belle Price Miller. His brothers and sisters were: Jewel Lorene, James Eldon; David Thurman, Dorothy Mae, Johnie Kenneth, Mildred, Norma Tolice, Thelma and William Howard. Jack was 18 years old when he enlisted in the Army. While serving in Korea he learned of his brother Howard's death from the Stars and Stripes (the Army Newspaper). Jack's unit was being re-assigned so he asked for and was granted Escort Duty to escort his brother's body from Yohohama, Japan to Cherry Valley, Arkansas for burial. This journey required thirty days by ship and finally by train to Jonesboro. When Jack departed the train he was wearing the black arm band on an Escort Guard. He stood at attention and saluted the flag as he had done at every point of debarkation on this journey home. Jack was 19 years old and a Private First Class. He stood straight and proud as he saluted the flag for the last time. As an Officer's Mess Sergeant, Jack won all of the awards given by the Army, including the highest award, the prestigious "Phillip A. Conley" for food service. He was flown from Japan to Scottsdale, Arizona to be given this award. Jack was three years from retirement, stationed at Anniston; Alabama, when orders were received to have Jack in Japan by the time a general, traveling by ship, arrived there. Jack tried to get out of this assignment by stating that he could not relocate his family on such short notice. He was informed that he and his family could fly over on the same plane and an apartment " would be waiting for them. While Jack was at Anniston; he was visiting in Birmingham and learned that Five Star General Omar Bradley was at the Courthouse. He rushed to the Courthouse, found the General's car and waited for the General's return. As the General approached his car, Jack stood at attention and saluted him. General Bradley returned the salute. Jack said getting to salute the last five star general was the highlight of his Army Career . Jack's last assignment was in Alexandria, Virginia. Having a high security clearance, he was stationed at a place where Henry Kissinger and other high ranking officials met. Jack retired from this station and moved to Newbern, Tennessee. Jack served 21 years in the Army, serving during the Korean Conflict and served two tours of duty in Vietnam where he received the Bronze Star. Jack was married to Amy Jo Harmon and they had three children, Janice, David and Becky Jo. He was later married to Kay Dennison and they had two daughters, Kimberly and Rhonda. Jack Dearing Miller died 21 November 1974 in the Methodist Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee and was buried with military honors in the Halk Cemetery, Cherry Valley, Arkansas.

Morris, Harry A., Sgt. 19731255 b. Oct. 10, 1893 d. Oct. 3, 1918- McElroy Cem.- Tstone/Cross Co. Veteran Bio: The following newspaper article was found in Mrs. George Rex (Mary) Martin's scrapbook: "CROSS COUNTY SOLDIER MEETS DEATH AT SEA Tuesday night the body of Sergt. Harry A. Morris arrived here from Hoboken, N. I., and was conveyed to his home about four miles southeast of town, where the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at three o ' clock, Rev. A. T. Galloway officiating, burial being made at McElroy cemetery . Sergt. Morris was inducted into the army at Camp Pike July 23d last as a private and was rapidly advanced to sergeant of his company. He went with his regiment to Camp Merritt, N.J., from where he sailed Sept. 22d for overseas duty. He was taken ill of pneumonia on the trip over and was returning to his native country when he died, and his body was sent home at the request of his parents, as above stated. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Morris, and was married about a year ago to Miss Lenora Spain, daughter of I. A. Spain. Besides his wife and parents there are left to mourn his untimely death, a brother and sister. C. T .Morris of Kansas City and Mrs. Reva Hays of Sikeston, Mo., all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community." Harry A. Morris' name is inscribed on the Cross County Veterans Monument, Cross County Courthouse, Wynne, Arkansas. In the McElroy Cemetery, his headstone reads, "Harry A. Morris, Sgt. Co. 13 Reg. He had one brother, Wayne, and two sisters, Alma Laden and Betty. Carl was educated in the Wynne Public School System, leaving before graduation to join the war effort. Carl entered the Navy 3 April 1940 and was sent to Norfolk, Virginia for boot training. Carl spent most of his six years at sea. He was assigned to the USS TUSCALOOSA, the USS SOUTH DAKOTA, the USS CALIFORNIA and the USS RENDOVA. He was on the battleship USS SOUTH DAKOTA when it received the unusual designation as " Battleship X". The South Dakota was instrumental in shooting down 36 Japanese attack aircraft, thus earning that name. Bill participated in intense naval campaigns at Guadalcanal and Santa Cruz. Carl was discharged 6 April 1946 at the Millington Naval Station, Tennessee. After his discharge, Carl returned to Wynne and was employed by the Missouri Pacific Railroad for over a year. He joined the Merchant Marines and sailed the seas for some 20 years. His last employment was with the New York Harbor Authority. Gordon attended the University of Virginia, University of Mississippi, and Mississippi State University. Gordon joined the Army Air Corps in 1943 as a Cadet. He trained at Gulfport, Mississippi; Buffalo, New York; Deming, New Mexico; and March Field, California. He graduated as 2nd Lieutenant Bombardier and was sent overseas as a B-24 Bombardier assigned to the 23rd Squadron, 5th Bomb Group, 13th Air Force in Nadzale, New Guinea. The 13th was called the "Jungle Air Force" because it was never stationed near cities or civilization. From Nadzale, they moved to an island called Morotai off the coast of New Guinea. Later they moved to Samar, an island in the Philippines, where they were when the war ended. It was decided to disband the 13th Air Force, so they were sent home. During this time he flew 13 missions, bombed Rabaul, Formosa, Wewak, Negros and he flew low-level for army troops. Gordon flew two missions to China for mapping of coastal cities from Hong Hong to FooChow, Amoy and Swatow, photographing anti-aircraft defenses. He survived a crash and was grounded for two months. Returning home, Gordon married Jerre Jane Coldren, and their only child was Sara B. Morris. He was a farmer in the Parkin area until his retirement. While Gordon lived in Wynne he enjoyed speedboats, amateur radio, hunting, fishing and reading. William Gordon Morris, Jr. died 7 November 2004 and was buried in the Cogbill Cem.in Wynne, Arkansas.

Picture/Tstone/*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio-Oscar I. Murray was born 20 November 1901 in Wynne, Arkansas, the son of Ben and Lizzie Thompson Murray. He grew up in Wynne with two brothers, Tom and Paul and Wynne Public Schools. Oscar Murray was only 16 or 17 when he joined the Army. His brother, Tom, was the Army and Oscar evidently missed him a great deal. Their mother had died years before, so his father signed the consent form. Oscar eventually found his brother, Tom, the front lines in France. Oscar married Blanche Camp and they had one daughter, Nancy. For a while he car salesman and a service station operator, and then was owner and operator Tire & Electric Company in Wynne.Oscar I. Murray died 14 May 1964 and was buried in Cogbill Cemetery. From a letter published in the Wynne Progress (October 1918): To the Editor of the Progress: I just want to ask you to mail me a Progress occasionally, because I sure would like to have the news from home. How do you like the way the Yanks and allies are hammering the "Huns?" I think we will all be back soon- not over 10 years from now. You should see a few of these German prisoners that the Yanks are getting. I sent one after a can of coal oil the other day and he was so weak he couldn't carry it over 20 feet without setting it down to take a rest. They are all old men. They sure enjoy being in American hands, for they get lots of good eats and good clothes. They get the same rations that we do and they work fine. One of them could talk English and he said " that he never fired a shot at the Americans while he was in the trenches. " Of course, he might just be saying it, thinking we would treat him better. But for that they couldn't be treated any better than the Americans treat them. A German Non-Com., captured by the French, said "I didn't think the Hindenburg line could ever broken." Some one asked him if Germany had the Rhine well fortified? He said "Yes, what good will it do when our men won't fight." All I have now is French money and I know you don't need that stuff, for it looks like tobacco coupons and if you carry it in your pocket a day or two it will wear out. Most all of the French money is made even down as low as 25 centimes, or about 5 cents in U.S. money. But it is very that you can buy anything for that little, nothing hardly under a "france"(franc) or about 18 to 20 cents in U.S. money. I hope all our boys will soon be home because it isn't very funny to stay here so long without getting to see home or just any place in the U .S. It is the only place in the world. Murray, Thompson Bernard "Buddy" b.Jun.15, 1926 d.Nov.25,2011-Cogbill Cem.-Obit per Paul Isbell: Thompson Bernard (Buddy) Murray, Jr., 85 of Wynne was surrounded by his loving family when he died in Little Rock at UAMS early Friday morning, November 25, 2011, of a perforated colon. He was preceded in death by his parents, Thompson Bernard Murray and Kathleen Hays Murray, his sister, Jane Murray Smith, and his beloved wife, Martha Williams Murray. Buddy was born in Wynne, AR on June 15, 1926 and that was the same year his father established Murray Chevrolet Co. After graduating from Western Military Academy in Alton, Illinois in 1944 Buddy enlisted in the Air Force and was awaiting flight training school when World War II ended. He attended the University of Arkansas and left without graduating but with “encouragement” from Martha he returned and graduated with a B.S. in Business in 1960. Buddy never wanted to do anything other than operate Murray Chevrolet Co., and he did it with great passion and expertise until his retirement in 1991. Buddy was also very engaged in the management of Wild Acres Farms. Buddy was a faithful member of First United Methodist Church of Wynne. He served in many capacities within the church, but he was a longstanding member of the Finance Committee and served as a delegate to Annual Conference for many years. He was a member of the Wynne Rotary Club for more than 60 years and a Paul Harris Fellow. Actively engaged in his community, Buddy served on the Wynne School Board, and helped guide the process of desegregation for the Wynne Public Schools. Buddy served on the Board of Trustees of the AR Methodist Children’s Home (currently Methodist Family Health) and he volunteered with The Good Shepherd Center, a local food and clothing pantry. He was a past board member of The First National Bank of Wynne and Wynne Federal Savings and Loan Association. Buddy was active in the AR Automobile Association as a board member and for a term as the state president, and he served on the National ADA board as well. After a near fatal car accident that left his mother paralyzed in the 1950’s Buddy became a crusader for the use of seat-belts, and he testified before a US Congressional committee in his effort to help pass national seat-belt laws. After his retirement, Buddy was able to focus his attention on collecting and restoring antique Chevrolet and Oldsmobile cars. He established an impressive collection of cars that spanned 7 decades. Buddy was active in national and local antique car clubs and he enjoyed traveling to show his treasures. Buddy grew to appreciate the game of golf and he was never known to not have a boat. Buddy is survived by his beloved children – Martha Jane Murray (Neil Munro) of Hot Springs, and Thompson Murray (Sharla Chalfant) of Little Rock. He leaves his precious grandchildren – Dr. Liza Murray (Joe Yoder) and Lucas Murray, and Sarah and Evan Munro. He leaves his sister-in-law, Helen Landes, of El Dorado and his brother-in-law, Jack Williams, of Little Rock. He had 8 nieces and nephews, numerous cousins, and an abundance of friends who were like family. His primary caregiver, Patsy Hogue, served him admirably and became like a family member. Buddy also leaves behind his best canine friend, Charlie. The burial service will be at Cogbill Cemetery in Wynne at 10 am on Monday, November 28, followed by a Memorial Service at 11 am at First United Methodist Church in Wynne with Rev. Glen Pettus officiating. Visitation will be held in Wynne at Kernodle Funeral Home on Sunday from 5-7 pm. Honorary pall bearers will be Buddy’s faithful coffee group and other lifelong friends; Luther Sigman, Jack Killough, Joe Dugan, Jim Shaver, Gerald Stutts, LV Tate, Doyle Brown, Leroy Dangeau, Wallace Eldridge, Jim Luker, and Roy Hunter. In lieu of flowers, Buddy would want memorial gifts to be directed to First United
