Mar. 12, 1992-Cogbill Cem.-Tstone-USMC Msgt.-*CC Family-*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio- Arthur Manuel "Art" Weeden was born 10 February 1917 in Wynne, Arkansas, the first child and only son of John William and Eva Lucille Bridges Weeden. He grew up with two sisters, Mary John and Mildred. Arthur graduated from Wynne High School in the Class of 1935. He was a clerk in a drug store, a stock boy at Wynne Wholesale Grocery, and did some work as a mechanic. Arthur married Violet Cecelia McElroy and their only child was Arthur M. Weeden, Jr. Arthur was inducted 19 January 1942 in Memphis, Tennessee and was discharged 17 July 1945 in San Diego, California. One of his awards was a Commendation for Superior Service. The following article was written by Arthur a few years before he died: "My tour of duty began in the year of 1942 in January. I volunteered into the United States Marine Corps in Memphis, Tennessee and from there was sent with several others to Little Rock for a physical check-up and to be sworn in. We were sent to San Diego, California where we were stationed at the Marine Base and where we went through boot camp training. Our platoon was number 129. After boot camp we were given a choice of the branch of service we wanted to enter. Because of my mechanical background, I chose to enter aviation. We were given an aptitude exam and I qualified. I was later sent by troop train back to Jacksonville, Florida and placed in Aviation Machinist's Mate School for 26 weeks. Each week we studied different phases of aviation with emphasis on maintenance of the aircraft which we would later be repairing. My average grade for the 26 weeks training period was 87. If we did not make a passing grade we did not get to go on liberty on the weekends. I failed only once and that was the week that we studied propellers. I was not the only one that failed that week. Propellers are very complicated so some of us had trouble understanding the way that they worked. After completing the course we were given a Certificate of Completion. We were then sent by troop train back to San Diego where we were assigned to another air base for duty. I was sent to Goleta Naval Air Base, five miles from Santa Barbara and very near the Pacific Ocean. While there I had the opportunity to work on Aircraft instruments and I remained in this field of duty for the rest of my tour. In 1943 while at the Goleta Air Base there was a call for three volunteers for instrument mechanics to go overseas. Three of us volunteered and were sent to North Island in San Francisco for four days and then sent overseas. Our first stop was a very picturesque island in the Society Islands called Bora Bora where we were allowed to go ashore and stretch our legs while the ship took on fresh water. We then sailed on to Samoa, where we relieved a group who had been there since before Pearl Harbor. I was now a sergeant and was placed in charge of the Instrument Shop with two men under my supervision. One of the most interesting things that took place on Samoa was one of the men in the same outfit with me had an old T model Ford for sale. I bought it for $75.00. It was the only transportation available and I needed it. Later we had orders to move our outfit to Fuma Fute, an island in the Ellis Islands. We had to get an order from the Commanding Officer in order to load our T Model Ford aboard ship (it was not classified as a government vehicle.) We passed Tarawa on the way to Fuma Futi. It had been taken in one of the fiercest battles in the Pacific. Many lives were lost before the island was secured. While on Fuma Futi we worked on planes in order to keep them flying. A squadron of planes from Midway Island lost their bearings in an electrical storm one night and began flying in a circle, widening the circle each time, trying to find land. One of the pilots flew off in a straight line and crashed landed off shore at a very small English mandated island called 'Nuitao.' He was the only survivor, all the other planes (12) and pilots were lost at sea. One of our jobs was to check all compasses to see that they were + or -tolerance. The planes that we worked on were the 'Corsair' F4U and FMI which was a modified model F4U. We also worked on Patrol Bombers such as

PBX and SN-J. Sometimes a P-38 or B-25 would be assigned to us but not often. Later we were sent to Majuro Atoll in the Marshall Islands. The SeaBees, an engineering outfit, had built an air strip and set up camp. We were assigned to our various shops and began servicing the planes. The main job of the pilots was to patrol several small islands near Majuro that the Japanese held. We wrecked their ships, blew up installations, and kept them from doing anything. Some of these islands were Wotje, Maloelup, Yap and Millie. Our outfit flew over 5,000 patrols over these islands, often sustaining damage to our planes. When Kwajalein was invaded, we had orders to get every plane in the air to bomb and strafe the island before and during the invasion. Many of these planes did not return. I tried to do my job well because it was for the survival of my country. I have no regrets and if I had to, I would gladly go again. I hope what we tried to do for our country will never be forgotten and that it will never happen again, for we love the good ole U.S.A." Arthur failed to mention that he completed six missions in a dive bomber as an aerial gunner . After his return to Wynne, Arthur was a Building Contractor and was well known as a master woodworker. He was proud of being the contractor and major advisor/consultant on the present First United Methodist Church. He was the builder of a number of residences in Wynne. One of his hobbies was drawing and painting, primarily with water colors and pastels. Arthur M. Weeden died 12 March 1992 and was buried in Cogbill Cemetery. I have this diary, My dad never spoke of this war to me except of places he went I read it when I feel sorry for myself because a movie couldn't cover this about a man who loved his God, his family and the men he served with. The man in this diary, I loved very much, but this is a side of him I didn't know I have a son that served in the Gulf War (Bo's only grandson). I know he would not have wanted this or any more wars. Veteran Bio: Ivan Raymond Whatley was born 3 December 1916 in Glenwood, Arkansas, the fourth son and sixth child of Joseph and Clyda Bell Talley Whatley. He grew up with six brothers and sisters: Oscar, Elmer, Lloyd, Leo, Mable and Hazel. He attended schools in Cherry Valley and Vandale and worked on a farm and as a saw mill worker . Ivan volunteered and was inducted 16 June 1942 at Camp Robinson, Arkansas. He took his basic training at Camp Rucker, Alabama; was trained as a cook and maneuvered in Florida, Tennessee and Alabama. Ivan left the States for the South Pacific on 12 July 1942. His diary lists the following dates: Hawaii -7 July 1942; Guadalcanal -August 1942; Anguar -17 September 1944; New Caledonia 19 March 1945; Philippine Islands - 17 May 1945; Japan -25 September 1945- Seattle, Washington 1 December 1945. From an article in Wildcat magazine: "Signifying the end of the journey for the Wildcats of Major General Paul J. Mueller's 81st Infantry Division, Old Glory was unfurled September 26th over Aomori's (Japan) Public Hall. Starting at Camp Rucker, Alabama, in June 1942, the Wildcats trained and fought nearly halfway around the world before raising the flag of victory over the scorched embers of what was once the most important port city in Northern Japan." From a letter from Ivan to his sister; "Somewhere in the Pacific - November 1944. By me being a cook sure didn't keep me off the front lines. I was on the front lines most every day while we were fighting, but I didn't mind. One day on the front lines in combat, then you get over most of your fears. I know the first few hours I was scared as bad as anyone, but in no time, I didn't pay any more mind to a bullet than I would one of those big green flies. As long as you hear them go over, you need not worry." Ivan was discharged 16 December 1945 at Fort Bliss, Texas having earned theCombat Infantryman Badge, the Good Conduct Medal, the World War II Victory Medal, the American Theater Medal, the Asiatic Pacific Theater Medal, and the Philippine Liberation Medal. Ivan and two of his brothers, Oscar and Leo, were in service at the same time. Ivan was the divorced father of one daughter, Betty Jean. After the war, he was a farmer, cook and railroad repairman. Ivan R. Whatley died 29 January 1958 and was buried in Lewis Cemetery near Hickory Ridge, Arkansas.

He served in Oliver General Hospital, Augusta, Georgia (in 1943) and Kennedy General Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee. Oscar was discharged 6 September 1945 at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas. He received the Good Conduct Medal. Oscar and two of his brothers, Leo and Ivan, were in service at the same time. Wilkins, William Leland-*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio-William Leland Wilkins, son of Dr. Moses Samuel and Lillian Wilkins, was born 17 January 1920 in Vicksburg, Mississippi. He was only two when his dad died, and at four he and his mother moved to Wynne. He graduated from Wynne High School in the Class of 1938. He volunteered and was inducted into the United States Marine Corps August 13,1940. Eddis Heath, Ray Faulkner and Wilkins left Wynne together for Quantico, Virginia. Here the three went through boot camp and were then transferred to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba for six months. But parting came and Wilkins joined The First Marine Division headed for Guadalcanal a major campaign in the Pacific. Following this campaign the marines were sent to a camp in Melbourne, Australia for R and R for three weeks. A new division was formed and seventy men including Wilkins were transferred to Camp Lajeune, North Carolina waiting for new orders. These orders took them to Upola in British Samoa. It was on Upola, Wilkins spent a short time in a Navy tent hospital recovering from an appendectomy. After a quick recovery his unit readied for the invasion of Roi-Namur. This was a difficult campaign but won never the less. Again the Marines were sent for R and R at a camp on Maui in the Hawaiian Islands. The next two big campaigns were Saipan and Tinian after which they again returned to Maui. Some time was spent at camp Pendleton, California. The Fourth Marine Division had played a leading role for 13 months with Iwo Jima as their final stepping stone to Tokyo. On March 16, twenty-six days and nine hours after the troops landed, Iwo Jima was secured. Strange as it may seem this order came down during the dark days of this invasion, "12 March 1945 TO: The Bridgade Commander:

This is the Commanding General of The Fourth Division, U.S. Marines, making a direct appeal to the Brigade Commander and his command to honorably surrender. You have fought a gallant and heroic fight, but you must realize that the Island of Iwo Jima has been lost to you. You can gain nothing by further resistance, nor is there any reason to die when you can honorably surrender and live to render valuable service to your country in the future. I promise and guarantee you and the members of your staff the best of treatment. I respectfully request you accept my terms of honorable surrender. I again to you in the name of humanity-- surrender without delay. C.B. Gates, Commanding General, Fourth Marine Division" The broadcast was repeated several times but the Brigade Commander, if he heard it, chose to ignore the offer. Finally, during the night of March 15-16, a party of nearly 60 Japs tried to break out of the pocket but failed in the attempt and were driven back to their caves. This defeat seemed to break their spirit of resistance, and by 1000 on March 16, the pocket had been secured. This was perhaps the greatest battle in the Marine Corps' history. Again the troops were sent back to Maui. The last seven months of Wilkins enlistment of six years were spent as Platoon Sergeant at Cecil Fields, Florida as a station guard. Wilkins received a citation from Major General Clifton B. Cates. August 12, 1946 ended his enlistment. He had served as gunner ranging from a Colt 45 automatic to the use of a 105mm Howitzer named Miss Fortune. Wilkins took part in five campaigns -Guadalcanal, Roi-Namur, Saipan, Tinian and Iwo Jima. Wilkins has 5 campaign ribbons. After the war, Wilkins did his pre-pharmacy classes at Arkansas State University, graduated from University of Tennessee as a Pharmacist, married Helen Jennings, and went to work for his sister, LaVena Holleman, owner of Holleman Drug Store in Wynne. Later he worked for and was co-owner at Turner Drug Company, Marianna, AR. for over twenty years. He then semi-retired for another ten (part-time) years with Williams Drug Company, Clarendon, AR. In 1995, fully retired, he and Helen moved back to Wynne and are volunteers for the First United Methodist Church and other organizations. The Wilkins only child, Jo Ann, was killed in a car accident in 1977. She was 20 years old. Bill was an avid tennis and golf player, with numerous awards. He was one-time County Tennis Champion of Cross County. He died Jan.30,2008 in Cross County.

Witcher, Charles Monroe "Sonny" 18575132 b. Mar. 29, 1924 d. Feb. 24, 2004-Cogbill Cem.-Tstone-.*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio- Charles Momoe (Sonny) Witcher was born 29 March 1924 at Cabot, Arkansas, the son of William and Florence House Witcher. He was raised with one brother and four sisters: Bertha; Fred; Lorene and Norene (twins); Dora May and Oyord plus two half-brothers: Eddie and J. R. He attended school at Vanndale for three years when he had to leave to help support his family. He cut timber throughout his growing years until he left for military service. Charles was inducted into the Army at Camp Robinson, Arkansas 2 August 1944. After completing his training as a Combat Infantryman and earning that badge, Charles departed the U.S. on 17 February 1945 for the Pacific Combat Zone. It took a month for them to reach their destination - Luzon. He spent one year, six months and 11 days in foreign service. Charles rose rapidly from a private to a T/Sergeant due to his bravery under fire. For his outstanding performance Charles received the following citation "CITATION - Award of the Bronze Star Medal - Charles M. Witcher, 38731155, Private First Class, Infantry, 6th Infantry Division. On 30 July 1945 in the Hapao-Banaue sector, Luzon, Philippine Islands, during a determined and furious counter-attack, an automatic rifleman became a casualty. Private Witcher courageously took over the position of the wounded automatic rifleman, although it was under intense enemy fire. He skillfully and coolly delivered withering automatic fire on the enemy. By his courageous aggressiveness, Private Witcher helped repulse the attack. His heroic action and untiring devotion to duty won the respect of all members of his company and merit high praise. GO No. 198, Hq 6th Inf Div, 23 Sep 45" One of his saddest experiences was the time he held in his arms a fellow soldier who was dying and heard his last words that were, "Tell my mother I love her." Unfortunately, Charles did not know her name and he still regrets he was unable to carry out his buddy's request. In addition to his Combat Infantryman Badge and the Bronze Star, Charles earned the Philippine Liberation Ribbon with one Bronze Star; the Asiatic-Pacific Theater Campaign Ribbon with one Bronze Star; the Good Conduct Medal; the Army of Occupation Medal (Japan); three Overseas Bars and the Victory Ribbon. He was discharged 3 November 1946 and was highly recommended for further military training which he declined so he could come home. Charles started buying and selling salvaged iron and did that kind of work until he retired. He has two sons: Kenneth and Phillip and two daughters, Barbara and Betty, by a prior marriage. Charles was married to Irene Wizer and they lived in Wynne, Arkansas. Charles M. (Sonny) Witcher died 24 February 2004 and was buried with graveside military services in Cogbill Cemetery in Wynne. John Wolf moved with his family to Calico Rock by Keel-boat in 1831. The family had to cut a path through the dense bottom to higher ground, where he built a temporary hut of poles where they lived until a log cabin could be built. He was a chaplain in the Confederate Army and took sick while on duty. His body was buried somewhere near where he died but the exact place of his grave is unknown. His daughter, Mary, was married to William B. Kennedy in the same unit, Company I 14 Ark Inf. and also a casualty of the war at Crowley's Ridge. Rev. Wolf had two son serving the unit, Robert Livingston Wolf and Michael Hedrick Wolf. Rev. Wolf about 56 years old when serving. He was the younger brother to Major Jacob Wolf. The company commander was Wythe Adams, son of Mary Ann Wolf, sister to Rev. John Wolf, and her husband John Q. Adams. The Wolf family had 45 family members serving AR CSA. It is not known where his wife is buried but perhaps in the Talley Cemetery where the son Robert Livingston Wolf is buried. She died in 1870 shortly after the son died, both of Typhoid Fever. She had been living in the Calico Rock area all of her married life and had a granddaughter who was married to a Talley also living near by. Wood, Joe Allen d.1995 (Bio.)-*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio- Joe Allen Wood was born 27 June 1922 in Tyler, Texas, the youngest son of Newton Steele and Rebecca Ann Harvey Wood. He grew up with four older brothers, Wilburn Robert "Bob", Newton Guy, Sam Harvey and Edgar Lee "Ned." Joe attended the Thomas School in Cross County and worked on a farm. Joe joined the CCC on the 15 April 1940 and served in Company 3777 at a camp near Hot Springs, Arkansas. One of his jobs was Park Service Nightguard. He was discharged 19 May 1941. On 28 November 1942, he was inducted into the Army at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia. He qualified as a Marksman (Rifle) 16 January 1943 and was, also, trained as a Military Policeman. On 11 February 1944, he left the States for the European Theater where he participated in the Normandy, Rhineland and Northern France Campaigns. Joe returned to the States 12 September 1945 and was discharged 7 November 1945 at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas. He had earned the World War II Victory Medal, the American Theater Medal and the EAME Theater Ribbon with three Bronze Service Stars. A (censored) Release No. 113577 reads: "1st MP Battalion in France Being Redeployed at Assembly Area. Assembly Area Command, France --- One of the first units to arrive at Camp Brooklyn in the Assembly Area Command was the 783rd Military Police Battalion, the first MP outfit to arrive in France on D-Day. Their arrival in the redeployment camp in Northeastern France is providing the men with the first real rest since landing on the beaches. Commanded by Lt. Colonel Thomas L. Donnelly of 1139 E. Court, Iowa City, Iowa; the 783rd came in on Omaha and Utah beaches with the 1st, 4th and 29th Infantry Divisions. It directed traffic on the original beachhead. After the St Lo breakthrough, the unit was assigned the task of planning the route of the famed "Red Ball" highway and later patrolled the vital road artery feeding the advancing Allied Armies. When the "Red Ball" outlived its usefulness, the 783 was moved to Liege, Belgium when that city was a constant target for German infantrymen, holding important bridge and road blocks leading into Liege. During their Belgian stay, the 783rd was active in combating black marketers and solved a number of baffling illicit cases. Before coming to the Assembly Area Command, the "fighting" MPs operated road patrols in Holland and Germany, working seven day a week. Now they are getting a short rest before leaving Europe. Members of the unit are: (on the list is Harrisburg: PFC Joe A. Wood. General Orders 120 reads "Meritorious Service Unit Plaque - 783rd Military Police Battalion - 10 July 1944 to 30 September 1944. Assigned the mission of traffic control and the safe and free movement of traffic on main supply routes in France, the 783rd MP Battalion accomplished the task under exceptionally difficult conditions. At times the routes were under enemy ground and air action. Blackout driving and frequent area changes necessitated continual changing of traffic requirements. On 28 August 1944, the battalion was assigned the task of initiating the military police phase of the "Red Ball" Highway. This was the main supply route from the beach areas to the forward dumps, and the largest undertaking by a unit of the Corps of Military Police in France. The loyalty, devotion to duty and technical skill displayed by the members of the 783rd MP Battalion contributed immeasurably to the successful operation of traffic control on the Continent and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. By Command of Lt. General Lee." All five of the Wood sons served in the military at the same time and in the European Theater. On several occasions they were able to meet one another. Sam Harvey was Killed in Action: Edgar Lee "Ned" was wounded, Missing in Action and a Prisoner of War and Bob and Guy served in the European Theater. Joe related to his family that once in Germany he went AWOL to check on a missing brother and when he returned was not charged with any offense. In the same family pattern, all four of Joe's grandsons are in military service. One has served in the Navy; one is serving in Kuwait; one in the Army and one in the Wynne Unit of the Arkansas National Guard. After the war, Joe farmed for a while at Marked Tree, Arkansas. He then moved to Bay Village, Arkansas, bought some land and raised cattle, hogs, sorghum and cotton. Joe married Verta Bumgarner and they had a daughter, Sheila, and a son, Mark. He enjoyed playing cards, hunting, fishing and gardening. Joe Allen Wood died 2 February 1995 and was buried in the Bay Village Cemetery.

Wright, J. G., Dr.-Goodspeed's Bio-b.Feb.17,1830 d.Jan.12,1892 Halk Cem.,Cherry Valley-Tstone-J. G. Wright, M. D., one of the prominent physicians and surgeons of Cross County, is a native of Illinois and was born in 1830, as the son of T. J. and Mary (Griffin) Wright, originally from Virginia, and of English descent. The father moved to Illinois in 1829, and settled in Edgar County, where he farmed until 1855, then going to Worth County, Mo. Buying a farm he resided until his death which occurred in 1866, at the age of fifty-four years. Mr. Wright served as justice of the peace four years in Missouri. Mrs. Wright still survives him and lives in Worth County, and though eighty years of age, she enjoys the best of health. They had in their family five children (two of whom are living): J. G., Martha (the widow of Samuel Adams, late of Missouri), C. C., Ester (deceased) and Elizabeth (deceased). Mrs. Wright is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Dr. J. G. Wright joined the United States army at [p.389] the age of sixteen, and served in the war with Mexico, participating in the siege of Vera Cruz, and a number of other prominent battles. After the engagement at Vera Cruz he received his discharge and returned home. During his time of service in that war he marched 500 miles on foot, and was disabled and laid up for eight weeks at the hospital at Matamoras. After coming home he entered upon the study of medicine at the age of eighteen in the office of Dr. Lenbrook, of Paris, Ill., a graduate of the Jefferson College of Medicine at Philadelphia. In 1849-50 Mr. Wright attended the Rush Medical College at Chicago, and in 1850 began his career as practitioner under his former instructor, where he remained for six years, then going to Worth County, Mo. Locating at Oxford, he continued the practice of his profession until 1886 and also served as county justice for two years, and was postmaster of Oxford for eight years. He then moved to Ottawa, Kan., but after six months came to this county. Dr. Wright was married in 1851 to Miss Julia Daugherty, of Ohio. They are the parents of five children: Florence E. (wife of W. D. Sharp, of Ottawa, Kas.), Alice D. (wife of J. W. Cubine, of Coffeetown, Kas.), C. J. C. and T. J. (both at home) and Mary M. (now Mrs. J. M. Tinson, of Kansas City, Mo.). Mrs. Wright is a member of the Baptist Church. Dr. Wright is a very decided Democrat, but does not take an active part in politics. He has a large and extensive practice as the constant demands made upon his time amply indicate, and his kindly manner makes him welcome in the sick room. --

Wynne, Jessie Watkins d.1907 (Bio.)--*CC Bank Vet.Memorial Bio- On 15 July 1973, Captain Wynne's grandson, Hugh Wynne of Memphis, gave the Cross County Historical Society the Civil War Record and only known original picture of his grandfather, both in beautiful frames and displaying the cane mentioned in the sketch. Commenting on the gift, Mr. Wynne said: "The rightful place for these (the gifts) is here, where everyone in this area can enjoy them and I am only too glad to give them to you. Captain Wynne's biography was written by Richard L. Hartness - the date and location of the newspaper is unknown. The article follows: "The Man Who Gave Wynne Its Name Jessie Watkins Wynne was born 1 July 1839, near the red hills of Marshall County, Mississippi. He was the son of Robert E. and Sarah Watkins Wynne. After the birth of their son, the Wynnes moved to the Republic of Texas. Young Wynne's early life was spent in Lynn Flat, Nachitoches County and in Rusk County. Frontier experiences of this new country made him aware of the excitement, hardships and manly exercise incident to such life. In April 1861 Wynne was visiting friends in Memphis (Tennessee), when war was declared. He hastened home and in May enlisted at Henderson, Texas, as a private in Company B, a part of the Third Texas Calvary, Ross Brigade, and served with this unit throughout the war's duration. His first battles were at Oak Hill and Wilson's Creek, Missouri in August 1861. He sustained a head wound at Wilson's Creek and in less than a year he was promoted to Second Lieutenant. He came with General Sterling Price to the Trans-Mississippi Department in 1862, and participated in the action around Elk's Horn. Thirteen months after his enlistment he was a Captain and Company Commander, though only 21 years old. He led his unit thru battles at Farmington, luka, Cornith, Resaca, Kennesaw Mountain and Atlanta. In August 1864, Wynne was wounded in the arm near New Hope Church (Battle of Reseca) during the Georgia Campaign. It is said that General W. H. Jackson visited and personally complimented Wynne while visiting in the field. Later that year he was captured near Jonesboro, Georgia. Misleading his captors into Confederate lines, he had the help of Adjutant Gregg of his regiment and the pleasure of personally marching the prisoners to his headquarters. After the war, Captain Wynne was paroled with the Ross, Texas Brigade at Shreveport, Louisiana. Needing money and realizing the good price for beef he had heard about in Eastern Arkansas he returned to Texas and helped drive a herd to Arkansas. The striving St. Francis riverport, Madison, in St. Francis County was his final destination. From the money he made he remained in Madison for only a short time, then moved to Forrest City.

Wynne met two gentlemen named Dennis and Beck, and the three of them organized a very successful merchants furnishing firm. As individuals began to gain wealth in the new self-governing South after Reconstruction ended, secure places to store their fortunes were needed. But firms like Wynne, Dennis & Beck agreed to hold these savings. Eventually there were more savings than safe storage places. Wynne and other leading merchants wanted a bank. The Bank of Eastern Arkansas was the result and Captain Wynne was its first president. St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railroad had passed Forrest City and was completed thru the area to Knobel, Missouri in 1882. Settlements like Cherry Valley and Vanndale in Cross County moved from atop Crowley's ridge to the railside. Active steamboat riverports like Wittsburg, Cross County, and Madison, St. Francis County, were deserted for the rails. Other settlements were created outright. Wynne, named in compliment to Captain Wynne, was located in 1882 when a train derailed leaving one boxcar without wheels and off the tracks. The car was placed upright and designated "Wynne Station." On September 27, 1882, the Wynne Post Office was opened. When the east-west Bald Knob branch came from Memphis, it crossed the north-south Knobel line near the boxcar, thus the name of "Wynne Junction" evolved. By 1888 the word Junction was dropped and on May 28 that year the town was incorporated by an order of the County Clerk. Captain Wynne decided he would move to Memphis. Liquidation of Wynne, Dennis and Beck was simple. Stock was divided by equal worth three ways; then Wynne told the other two to make their choice and he would take that remaining. As a going away gift Captain Wynne was given a gold-knobbed, ebony cane from the Directors and Cashier of the Bank of Eastern Arkansas. It was during 1889 that Wynne departed for Memphis. On the Mississippi riverport, Wynne became involved in the cotton factorage business. The firm was called Wynne, (W. E.) Love and Company. Wynne had married Miss Margaret R. Wynne of Holly Springs, Mississippi in 1869. They had three sons: Joel E., Hugh R. and Jesse W., Jr. The family had an elegant residence on Union Avenue. Mr. Wynne was a Democrat; a Methodist; on the boards of a Memphis bank and on an oil company and a member of the Confederate Historical Association of Memphis after March 1891. Captain Wynne died at his home in Memphis on May 6, 1907 and was buried in Holly Springs, Mississippi on May 8, 1907.
