Drennon, Cathy Allyn

Cathy Allyn Drennon On July, 16th, Cathy Allyn finally found peace. She passed into the arms of her loving Father in St. Paul, Minnesota. Born in Phoenix, Az on Nov 12th 1963, to James E. Allyn, Sr and Martha H. Jobe Allyn, Cathy was a loving daughter, sister and most of all a mother to her daughter Sarah. Cathy was employed as a nurse, a profession that she loved as much for the hard work as for her ability to help people feel better. Cathy initially attended Scripps College in Claremont, California, but she soon decided that she missed her family and moved back to Arizona to pursue her degree in Nursing. She then graduated number one in her class from the Scottsdale Community college nursing program, where her daughter Sarah stole the show by surprising her mother on stage in order to place her RN pin on her uniform. Cathy had the uncanny ability to walk into a room and discuss anything from the laws of the universe to the dangers of drugs and alcohol. She was a wonderful person and will be missed terribly by all who knew her. Cathy's other loves were cooking and the outdoors. She loved to cook, whether a fancy dinner or an experimental casserole, she gave it her best and most of the time she was successful when dinner was served. She enjoyed spending time in the outdoors be it to fish for the infamous rock bass or to camp in unchartered territory. She enjoyed jazz music, even dating a musician for a time later in her life just so she could be closer to the music that she loved. Cathy was also a nationally ranked Amateur wrestling referee, where she participated in refereeing the National wrestling tournament. When that task became boring for her, she began participating in Amateur Judo tournaments and very quickly became one of the best Judo players in the state of Arizona, even to the point of qualifying for Nationals with very little experience under her proudly worn white belt. She is preceded in death by her grandfathers, Emmet Jobe Sr and Q. C Allyn; her paternal grandmother Thelma Allyn, and her aunt, Betty Allyn. She is survived by her parents Jim and Martha Allyn, grandmother Lucille Jobe-Boldt, grand-father Bob Boldt, her brothers Jim and Hank, her sister-in-laws Kathy Sue and Maria Perez, her sister Cecilia Allyn, her five nieces and nephews, Karen, Randal, Jimmy, Raymond and Kayla,. She also has four uncles, Buddy Jobe, Keith Allyn, Dave Higgins and Kurt Sugareth. Her aunts include Billie Buie Jobe, Geraldine Higgins, Helen Finn, Cindy Jobe-Sugareth and Renee Jobe. She also has many wonderful cousins spread throughout this great country of ours. She is also survived in Minnesota by her partner Todd Foster and the pride and joy in her life, daughter Sarah Allyn. May your trip be peaceful and we all miss you terribly. Services on Sat. Aug. 16th at the Nazarene Church, 191 S. California St. Chandler, AZ. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Maricopa County Hospital Burn Unit. Let not your heart be troubled: Ye believe in God, believe in me. In my Fathers house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there you may be also. John 14: 1-3. The Arizona Republic 8/13/2003.

Gilbrech, Earl P.

Earl P. Gilbrech Earl P. Gilbrech of Scottsdale. Arizona left this life on August 9, 2003 after a long, courageous battle with cancer. Earl was born on July 12, 1944, in Ankeny Iowa and moved to Phoenix, Arizona as a young child. He attended Brophy College Preparatory, was a proud Arizona State University graduate, and attended UCLA master's program. A man of diversified interests and talents. Earl initially worked for TRW in the Aerospace industry in California. He later became active in the stock market and was a mortgage broker and real estate broker. His office was his briefcase; he traveled extensively and made lifelong friends everywhere he went. He became known as "Mr. Belize" because he was always ready to talk about his "Caribbean paradise", arrange a trip, or promote Belize and its business interests without compensation. As a financial consultant, Earl showed an amazing entrepreneurial spirit and those who knew him valued his advice and integrity both professionally and personally. He gave true meaning to the word "friend" and was incredibly generous with his time and energy to his countless pals around the world. He was taking calls and making introductions until the last days of his life. Earl was keenly intelligent, endlessly creative and incredibly perceptive but never took himself seriously. He loved being a "dealmaker". He was a strong negotiator but never made an enemy. He was always willing to "leave something on the table" and give everyone a "dignified way out". He shrugged his shoulders at slights and was always first to offer his hand in reconciliation. His fondest pleasure was making people laugh and his sense of humor and quick wit brought countless smiles to his friends and family. He was a man of many accomplishments, founder of several companies, officer and director of numerous public companies, but he considered his happy, successful children, his cherished grandchildren, and his diverse circle of friends his greatest treasures. In addition to the true love of this life, his wife Donna T. Gilbrech, Earl is survived by his mother Josephine Gilbrech, his two daughters Jeanne M. Jorgensen and Melissa L. Morris, his sons-in-law Jeffery W. Jorgensen and Michael K. Morris, as well as his truly beloved grandchildren, Jessica and Cory Jorgensen. Kehler, Edward

Edward Kehler, 1950 - 2003.

Ed Kehler was a good man, someone who never gave up. He also was the most gifted stonemason the Valley has ever seen. He was the kind of person who never let anything stop him, like a raging bull in the midst of a charge. He loved his family, both in Canada and here in Arizona. He was adored by more people than he was aware, and had a huge impact on anyone who ever knew him. This is because he was not torn in different directions like many of us, but rather he marched to the beat of his own drum. We will all miss you terribly, Ed, but we know you will be alright. You always were. The Arizona Republic 8/13/2003.

Mayer, William George

William George Mayer, born in Hamburg, Germany, 94 years ago, migrated as a teen-ager with his parents to the United States and became more American than most Americans. And he became more Rotarian than most Rotarians, spending 55 years as a member of that service club, 39 of them years of perfect attendance. But, his friends said, he remained a straight German throughout his life and once a week telephoned three friends in Hamburg. He died Sunday, August 10, at his home in Westminster Village, a retirement community at 12000 North 90th Street, Scottsdale. Memorial services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Wednesday, August 20, at Westminster Village's Chapman Hall. Burial will be in Chicago. Since he was keenly interested in youth, the family suggested memorials may be sent to the Rotary Club Foundation, the Westminster Village Foundation for scholarships or the PEO. Bill came to this country while still a teen-ager and his careers included education in accounting, time as an Internal Revenue agent, and later owner of a Chicago Heights accounting firm. He related that on his first day in school in Chicago, the other kids laughed at his clothes. He went home and announced he would never attend another day of school without clothing like the other children. He lived up to his word and soon had new clothes. Later, as an accountant, he served for 35 years as treasurer of the Cook County township. Catherine and Bob Kruse met Mayer when they vacationed in Scottsdale. After the death of Bob, Catherine and Bill became friends and married in 1988. They moved into Westminster in 2000. Survivors include his widow, Catherine Mayer, her four children: Philip Kruse, Corpus Christi, Texas; David Kruse, Topeka, Kans., Steven Kruse, Jackson Hole, Wyo., and Barbara Kruse, Twin Falls, Idaho. Also surviving are five grandchildren of the widow. The Arizona Republic 8/19/2003.

Simon's greatest legacy is not in concrete, asphalt or nuclear energy -- but in his family. Bustoz, Joaquin

Joaquin Bustoz. It is with deep sorrow that we advise of the death of Joaquin Bustoz on Wednesday August 13. Dr. Bustoz was born in Tempe, Arizona, one of five children of parents who were farm workers and long time employees of the Tempe Elementary School District. In recognition for their years of service, the Joaquin and Ramona Bustoz Elementary School was named after his parents. Joaquin Bustoz achieved his Ph.D. in Mathematics at Arizona State University in 1967 and returned to ASU in 1975 after serving on the faculty at the University of Cincinnati. In addition, he has been a Senior Fulbright Lecturer at the Universidad Nacional de Columbia, a Visiting Professor of Mathematics at Universidad Coimbra in Portugal and a Visiting Mathematician at the Mathematical Association of America. His Mathematical research has been in Analysis, most recently in Orthogonal Polynomials and Special Functions. Since 1985, Dr. Bustoz has been deeply involved in enhancing the number and quality of minority students in the fields of mathematics and science. In 1985, he created and directed the Summer Math-Science Honors program, which became the national model. Since 1993, he has also served as the Director of the Institute for Strengthening Understanding of Mathematics and Science (SUMS). In addition to this work, Dr. Bustoz directed the National Institute of Health's MARC program. Minority Access to Research Careers. For his many successes in encouraging minorities to earn degrees in mathematics and science, the National Science Foundation honored Dr. Bustoz individually in 1996 and his institute in 2003 with the prestigious Presidential Award for Excellence in Science, Mathematics, and Engineering Mentoring. He has received numerous teaching awards including the Wexler Award at ASU and, in 1996 and 2002, the ASU Alumni Association's Outstanding Faculty Service Award. His passing is an immeasurable loss. Joaquin's defining characteristic was his passion not only for the field of mathematics, but also for helping talented minority students achieve their full potential. He recognized the hard work and long study required to achieve an understanding of mathematics and sciences, and he taught his students how to rise to the challenge of mastering those demanding fields of study. Joaquin's dry humor and intelligence will be sorely missed by his friends, students, and colleagues. But his loss will be most acutely felt by his wife, Maureen; by his children, Sara, Mathew and David; by his grandsons, Kyle, Michael, and Alejandro; by his brothers, Manuel, Albert, and Ramon; and by his sister, Mary. A memorial service on Thursday, August 21, 2003 at 1:00p.m. at the Galvin Playhouse in the Fine Arts Building (adjoining the art museum) on ASU campus. In lieu of flowers, we suggest contributions to the scholarship fund established in his name. Contribution checks should be made payable to the ASU Foundation and may be sent to: ASU Foundation, P.O. Box 5005, Tempe, Az. 85287-5005, Attention: Joaquin Bustoz Memorial Scholarship Fund. Arrangements made by Carr Tenney Mortuary. The Arizona Republic 8/20/2003.

Condon, Lowell Duane

Lowell Duane Condon 9/12/1924 - 8/17/2003. After a long and courageous battle with cancer, our beloved father, Lowell D. Condon died peacefully at home on Sunday, August 17, 2003. Always the optimist, he died filled with hope and love for those who survive him. His patriotism was second only to his role as a father. To those who knew him, he was a sage advisor and a great storyteller. He believed that next to family, good friends were the most important possession in the world and he never wavered in his devotion to his country. He was born in Des Moines, Iowa to Wollia "W. O." and Alma Jensen Condon. He was especially proud of the heroism of his father who saved many lives in a daring rescue which earned him the Silver Star for bravery during World War I. He was raised with his sister, Corinne, who remained his friend and confidante for life. The family eventually moved to Minnesota. During World War II he enlisted in the Navy and served aboard the U.S.S. Somers. In recent years, he attended a reunion of his shipmates. After the war, he met and married Patsy Bredesen and they went on to have eight children whom they raised in Minneapolis. He was quite the entrepreneur and worked initially as a salesman attending business college at night. He was also a meatcutter (as were his father and father-in-law) and eventually started a chain of gas stations in the Midwest. He also invested in oil wells in Oklahoma and Texas splitting his time between Minnesota and Arizona. He moved here permanently thirty years ago. He was strongly involved in AA and recently achieved his 45th anniversary of sobriety. He credited his involvement in AA with changing his life. Some of his best memories were of the days when he had his pilot's license and flew a small plane. He developed a fondness for travel and liked nothing better than taking a cruise or trip with his children or special friends. An extended cruise to the orient was one of his dearest memories. He was preceded in death by his wife, Patricia Rose Bredesen Condon, his son, Jon Paul Condon and his grandson, Michael Julian Martinez. He is survived by his sister Mrs. Corinne Hamlin (Jack), Florence, Alabama, daughters, Dr. Cathleen Smith, Fountain Hills, Arizona, Mrs. Carole Martinez (Michael), Fountain Hills, Arizona, Mrs. Susan Ashe (Tom), Chandler, Arizona, Ms. Terry Darnell, Phoenix, Arizona, Ms. Cindy Bacso, Dunedin, Florida and his sons, Mr. Jim Condon (Colleen), Scottsdale, Arizona and Mr. Tim Condon (Loretta) Phoenix, Arizona. He additionally has seven great grandchildren: MacKenzie Rose Loving, Tanner James Smith, Sean Timothy Loving, Kaelan Charles Loving, Emma Marie Smith, Sierra Morgan Dudas and Savanna Janeane Dudas.
