Natasha Turk

Natasha Turk, age 65, passed away on July 10, 2003 in Phoenix. She was born in Buffalo, N.Y. and moved to Arizona in 1979. She is survived by her parents Geraldine and Avrum Turk of Tucson. She was preceded in death by her son, Ethan Turk. Natasha was a member of Ruach Hamidbar for many years and contributed many beautiful drawings and designs to their prayer books. Natasha was a gifted multi-media artist whose work is categorized as "American Surrealism" by art historian Michael Bell and is catalogued as such in the San Francisco Museum and the Smithsonian Museum Archives. Tasha viewed her style as "visionary," since much of her imagery came from waking dreams, visions and nightmares. She studied with many renowned artists in a variety of media, including sculpture, in New York and California. Tasha had a B.A. in Fine Arts from the University of California at Berkeley and an M.F.A. degree in Painting and Printmaking from the State University of New York at Buffalo. The majority of Tasha's work contains human figures and/or faces, both realistic and allegorical. Her love of mythology, comparative religions and the psychology of Carl G. Jung led Tasha to do many narrative pieces that are often viewed as startling, provocative or confrontational. "Tasha" had many one-woman shows and participated in hundreds of group shows. She was honored with awards, articles, interviews and a listing in "Who's Who in the West." Her teaching experience included lectures and demonstrations to private groups; and studio and lecture courses at universities, colleges and high schools in New York, California and Arizona. Tasha was a juried member of the Society of Illustrators of Los Angeles, the Arizona Artists Guild and the Arizona Pastel Artists Association. Memorial Service for Natasha Turk on Sunday, July 20 at Sinai Mortuary, 4538 N. 16th St., Phoenix. Rabbi Ayla Grafstein will officiate. Jewish News July 18, 2003

Dana, Dora Irene Olson

Dora Irene Olson Dana, entered this world just 9 days after Valentines Day in 1915. It only seems appropriate that her favorite color was red and so much of her life was filled with love for her husband Joe and her children and grandchildren. She was born in Salt Lake City and moved to Phoenix at the age of 14. Dora attended Phoenix Union High School and Phoenix College. She was a dancer, a violin player, worked for the commanding officer at Luke Air Force Base during World War II, and along with Joe, served 4 missions for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints: Hawaii, Missouri, Washington D.C., and New York City. But her most important job and accomplishment was mother and teacher to her 7 children. She taught them how to cook, iron, clean, forgive, and to love. She taught them not to argue, how to do their best, how to serve a memorable Sunday dinner and keep the bathroom clean. She made Christmas and birthdays and vacations special and didn't gossip. There was no such thing as a casual dinner in Dora's house. Whether she prepared for hours, or we brought in fast food, her table was set with placemats, fine dinnerware and care. Her riches aren't in a jewelry case or bank. They are in picture albums, memories and in her heart. She loves candy, as long as it's chocolate, Mother's Day cards, as long as they are big, and all colors, as long as they are red. She is survived by her husband of 65 years Joe Robinson Dana, daughter Judy Rasmussen (Vaughn), daughter Carol Baugh (Glenn), son Kent Dana (Janet), son Dr. Reed Dana (Cindy), daughter Susan Foutz, daughter Kathleen Nelson (Kent), daughter Marilyn Coombs (Scott), and special daughter Deanna Roberts (Cleve). She has 43 grandchildren and 54 great-grandchildren, with several more on the way whom she has probably already hugged. She is preceded in death by her parents, Vivian V. and Carrie T. Olson, sister, LaVenda Herrera, and brother, Wayne T. Olson, and son in law, Dr. James R. Foutz. All of us will miss her smile, her love, her pride, her ham loaf, and that special yearly phone call when she would play "Happy Birthday" to us on her harmonica. Funeral services Wednesday at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at 1438 N. Driftwood Drive, Gilbert Arizona. Viewing will Tuesday night at Bunkers Mortuary at 3529 E. University, Mesa and Wednesday morning at the church. Published in the Arizona Republic from 7/1/2003 - 7/2/2003.

Hughes-Brown, Kimberlee Anne

Kimberlee Anne Hughes-Brown, known to many as "Kimmie Brown", age 46, of Phoenix, AZ. Passed away suddenly on June 28, 2003 at the Arizona Heart Hospital, with her two siblings at her side. She was born on May 27, 1957, here in the Valley. She was the type of person who would give you the shirt off her back. That was her way of life. If she was not laughing, she was sleeping. Very happy go lucky gal, who loved to have a good time. Most of that time took place at the Great Escape Lounge, as well as being where she has worked for the last 9 years. Where she will be missed highly but always remembered, it was her Home away from Home. She loved to laugh and just have a good ol' time. She left many good memories with those very close to her. She will be missed! Survived by Ex-husband and friend Roger Dale Brown, their son Jason Brown, and her daughter KC Brown, sister April Reynolds, her niece, Jamie Brown, the whole Brown family - her brother Steven Hughes, Father Tom E. Hughes, Mother Gayle Spear and dear friends Kristie Boehn and Joe Hosier. We all loved her very much, and always will with memories she left behind. Together they would raise their two boys Bob and Tom while living in the small apartment behind the garage of her mother's house, saving money to build her dream house a few blocks away. Daughter, Lorene would be born on move-in day and son, Jim would arrive two years later just days before his sister's birthday. They would become best friends. Helen was a homemaker & Roy worked for Mesa Public Schools. Helen created a wonderful environment for her three children. She longed for the outdoors, so their home was forested like a huge garden. She also loved violets & pansies, planting them all over the yard. She loved humming birds & was always excited when they came to hover over the feeders she put out for them. Many made their homes in the trees that covered their front & back yards. For years & years she would watch their little ones hatch & soon fly away, as if they too were her children. Helen loved the game of tennis & taught it to all her kids. Her last time on the court was when she was 85 years old. Standing on the court with her wooden racket, she seemed to be transformed back some 40 years ago when she was the best tennis player in the family. She will be remembered as a warm loving mother & a God fearing woman who loved, Jehovah, Jesus Christ, studying the Bible & telling others about her hope. She is survived by her brothers, Maynard

Kuepper of Las Vegas, Nevada & James Kuepper of Independence, Missouri, her daughter, Jeanne E. Bermudez of Mesa, AZ., who lovingly cared for her for the past several years & her sons, Jan D. Nelson of Phx, AZ., Rod A. Nelson of Gilbert, AZ., four Grandchildren, Christine Nelson, Mark Nelson, Adama Nelson & Tia Nelson & two Great-Grandchildren, Tristan Nelson & Alexander Nelson. She touched the lives of many people & will be warmly remembered. The memorial will be held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses located at 630 W. Chandler Blvd., Chandler, AZ., on Thursday, July 10, 2003. If flowers or cards are desired to be sent, please send to: The Nelson Family, 412 W. Pillinger Jr. M.D., Herbert Henry

Herbert Henry Pillinger Jr. M.D. Born August 2, 1922 Elgin, Illinois, died July 6, 2003 Apache Junction, Arizona. The quality of a man's life is in deeds and their impact upon those he encounters. My father, mother Kathryn, brother Tom, and myself Terry were traveling to our grandparents in Florida during the mid 1950's. We had stopped at the battlefields surrounding Chattanooga Tennessee where my father bought my brother and me Union Officer's hats and toy guns. We continued our trip into Georgia singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic and Here We Go a Marching From Atlanta to The Sea. Stopping for gas in a small Georgia town he told Tom and me to stop singing. The tone of his voice indicated he was serious. We were perplexed because he always loved to sing with us. The station was dirty, run down and peopled by surly men in overalls. Tom and I accompanied my father to the restroom. There were three such rooms marked Men, Women and Colored. My father whispered "how would you like it if you had to go to the bathroom with girls". He said those men hated black people and that they didn't like us either because we were from the North. I'm thankful for having a father who took the time to teach me the golden rule of treating others the way I wanted to be treated, for revealing the insanity of hate whether based on race, religion or geography and giving us many great vacations filled with history, adventure and love. My mother and I will always remember dinner with the smell of antiseptic on his clothes and the blood stains on his shoes. His graphically entertaining depictions of surgical exploits were usually funny but sometimes left me with little appetite. Father created the greatest of Christmas's with trees toy trains (which I still have) and Christmas carols. We always shared this special day with our relatives the Masons who still live in Elgin, Illinois. He taught my brother and me to shoot straight (my mother was already an accomplished shot). We employed this skill every fall when we hunted Mourning Doves with our friends the Schneffs, also of Elgin. The thousands of daily adventures triumphs and tragedies of my father's life came to an end on the 6th day of July 2003 in Apache Junction Arizona two thousand miles from where he was born to Dr. H.H. Pillinger Sr. and Velma Pillinger. After going through college and medical school (in six years) he practiced medicine with his father. He had only one wife Kathryn Barbara whom he married while serving as a Captain in the U.S. Army during the Second World War and two sons Thomas Craig, who died in 2001 and Terry both lawyers. Perhaps my father's choice of heroes Lincoln, Jackson and Jefferson, all three of whom were attorneys, influenced our choice of profession. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to The Phoenix Zoo, 455 North Galvin Parkway, Phoenix, AZ 85008 in the name of Dr. Herbert H. Pillinger Jr. There will be no services as his life was a testament onto itself. The Arizona Republic 7/8/2003.
