Born in Billings, Oklahoma, to Eva Jane and Earl Lorette, Ray was raised in Mazie, Oklahoma where his parents owned a registered hereford ranch. He attended Tulsa University for two years. Ray traveled on the National Livestock show circuit for Dan Thorntons White Mountain Ranch and was in Los Angeles when World War II was declared. After recovery he was rehired as a consultant. He retired for the second time at the age of 81. Rays love of horses and riding began as a youngster. He became a member of the Maricopa County Mounted Sheriff's Posse in 1950. He credits this organization for his most precious and enduring friendships. Services will be held at the First Presbyterian Church of Casa Grande, 702 E. Cottonwood Lane, July 13, 2003. Keith was born in Tucson October 12, 1923, the oldest of three children born to Thomas M. and Hazel T. Carlton. He attended local schools graduating from Casa Grande Union High School in 1941. After graduation Keith began farming with his father, however, with the outbreak of World War II he enlisted in the Army Air Corps earning his wings as a pilot. In February 1945, while serving in the European theatre his Lightning P-38 fighter was shot down while on a mission over Cologne, Germany. Captured, he spent the balance of the war in Europe as a POW. Upon his return from Europe he married Mildred "Mickey" King on July 2, 1945 at her family's home in Girard, Kansas. The two had attended high school together and dated while Keith was in flight training and Mickey attended Arizona State University. After his discharge from the Air Corps Keith returned to farming. Always proud of his farming operation he worked long hours both physically as well as through research and education to improve the farm's productive and economic results. Over the years he earned a reputation as an innovative and progressive member of the agricultural community. Keith was active in many civic and professional organizations serving as a director of the Arizona Cotton Growers Association, President of the Eleven Mile Corner Gin, and as a member of the boards of the State Insecticide-Herbicide Advisory Board, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Board, Pinal County Air Quality Control Board and the Pinal County Housing Authority. He also served for many years as a director and President of the Board of Hoemako Community Hospital. Since moving to Casa Grande at the age of 10, Keith has been a member of the First Presbyterian Church. He served in a number of church leadership roles including as an elder, and a member of Presbytery and Synod boards. He also spent many years as an adult Sunday School teacher, and along with Mickey as a leader of youth activities. Keith was an accomplished woodworker, crafting a wide variety of pieces from furniture to toys, many of which were donated to various charity and church fundraising activities. In addition Keith enjoyed golf bowling and fishing. Keith also enjoyed traveling with Mickey and friends over the past 25 years. During this time the couple traveled to Europe, Australia, and China as well as making countless RV trips back and forth across the United States, Canada, and to Alaska and Mexico. In the past few years Keith enjoyed attending reunions of his military unit. The opportunity to renew friendships and reminisce about a dangerous and exciting time of his life was special to him. Keith is survived by his loving and devoted wife of 58 years, Mickey and five children and their spouses; son Mark and his wife Naida Carlton of Bakersfield, California, daughter Jeanne and her husband Bob Campo of Scottsdale, daughter Amy and her husband Jim Wilson of Austin, Texas, son Marvin and his wife Lynne Carlton of Phoenix, and daughter Maribeth and her husband Kevin Carlton of LaConner, Washington. He also leaves 10 grandchildren; Craig Carlton, Wes Carlton, Amanda Carlton, Rob Campo, Chris Campo, Carlton Wilson, Tom Wilson, Anna Carlton, Keith Carlton, and James Carlton. Also surviving is great-grandson Justin Carlton. In addition - sisters Cleo Goff of Casa Grande, and Lael Carlton of Boomer, North Carolina survive him. Keith as a member of the "greatest generation" experienced many of the challenges and rewards of this period. A former POW and decorated veteran he returned to Casa Grande and with the help of Mickey raised a fine family and built a prosperous business. Although he suffered his first heart attack 27 years ago he battled back to survive much longer than most expected. Like so many of his generation he was much stronger and more determined than people anticipated. We were fortunate to have known and loved a person of this character. The family would like to express their appreciation to the staff of RTA Hospice and Palliative Care Center of Casa Grande for their compassionate care and the support of the family and friends. Dr. Michael Venton Vance. The life and sweet soul of Dr. Michael Venton Vance melted into the calm and quiet on Tuesday, July 8, 2003. During his life, Mike chose a diverse series of paths; he covered a lot of ground and accomplished much in a short amount of time. Born May 26, 1946 in Parsons, KS to Neal V. and D. Mildred Vance, Michael was the youngest of two children. He excelled while attending local schools and proceeded to "Jayhawk" at the University of Kansas. Upon completing his medical degree, Mike moved to Arizona with wife Linda and daughter Jennifer in 1972 and quickly began to establish his personal and professional life in the Valley of the Sun. He began his career as an Emergency Physician at St. Luke's Hospital and was Associate Medical Director of the St. Luke's Poison Center. He later practiced Emergency Medicine at Good Samaritan Medical Center and worked closely with the Good Samaritan Regional Poison Center as an Associate Medical Director. For many years, Mike was intricately involved with the American Board of Emergency Medicine and served as their President, Member of the Executive Finance Committee, Chairman, Test Administration Committee and a Founding Member of the Medical Toxicology Sub-Board. With an enthusiastic and intense focus, he continually tried to enhance the oral examination for the benefit of those involved. Mike also greatly enjoyed and was very proud of his involvement with the Phoenix Fire Department. He helped train local Fire Department paramedics and developed the first training program in the country for paramedics of the Hazardous Materials Team. Mike was passionate as an educator, examiner, speaker, and often-published writer of articles regarding Emergency Medicine and Medical Toxicology. In his leisure time and later retirement, he was an avid reader who constantly sought new information, enjoyed sporting events, camping, concerts, and traveling. At all times, he loved a good joke and was never shy with his opinion. As a father, many of the lessons instilled to us during our childhood were solidified by your display of discipline and love towards both your work and us. We continue to build on many lessons. We recognize that our time with you helped develop and early foundation that brought us enormously close as siblings. It has been a source of our determination, and helped us through the challenges and successes of our lives so far. Mike is survived by his sons, Brian Michael and Joel Christopher; daughter Jennifer and her husband Curtis Hecker; sister, Sharon Kendrick; her children, Susan and Peter and their families; a host of many other friends and life partner, Sharon Minnick. Many thanks to all that surrounded our Dad throughout his life. We appreciate the friendship, understanding and support you shared with him as well as the encouragement you extend to us. It has been said that people do not remember days but, instead, remember moments. There are many great moments embedded in the memories of those that knew Michael V. Vance. Leavitt, George Harlan George Harlan Leavitt, 87, of Overgaard, AZ, has told his final story. His passing came peacefully on July 12, 2003. He leaves behind a legacy of storytelling about the caskets he spent 30 years manufacturing at Phoenix Casket Company. His stories of the American history that he lived in the early 1900's kept children mesmerized. George and his wife, Eleanor, spent almost 67 years together and they had three children, Evelyn, Dewayne, and Vernon. Two other children, John and Donald Robl, joined the family as foster kids and stayed. A combined 9 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren kept him happy with built-in audiences. George was a forty year member of Madison Baptist Church, Phoenix, helping it grow from a tent on the corner of 12th Street and Camelback to its present location. He was a man of integrity, and believed in a hard-days work. He was still moving dirt in his yard the last days of his life. All who knew him will miss his finger in the air and his statement, "that reminds me . . ." as another story wound it's way into the conversation. Rest well, George. You deserve it. A Celebration of Life will be held at the Overgaard Baptist Church on Saturday, July 19th, at 4:00 PM, and at Madison Baptist Church, Phoenix, on Monday, July 21st, at 10:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to either church. The Arizona Republic 7/16/2003.

Pina, Alejandro R. "Alex"

Alejandro "Alex" R. Pina entered this world on August 10, - 1956 at St. Joseph's Hospital. Was forced out by malice intent, entering into eternal life and peace on September 22, 2002 at Good Samaritan Hospital. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Frank and Katie Barriga, Raymond Diaz, Sr., Albert, Sr., and Rita, brother, Kenny, uncles, Ernest Pina, John and Mary Martinez, Mary Gold, great grandma, stepfather, Mario Orozco, cousins, Mary Diaz and Virginia Jaminez, aunts, Irene Monteial, Rose Serrano and Pat Barriga. Survivors, his parents, Inez Diaz and Albert, Jr., brother, Ronnie, Mike, Albert, III, Michael, Arturo, sisters, Linda, Norma, Raquel Richter, Alice Espindola, Angie Hardesty, grandma Rosalie Luna, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, friends from near and far will always remember his smile and kindness. He was never too broke or busy in showing his love for his family through a small gift, a phone call, postcard, short visits or to offer small tasks. He was a devoted son who even as a youngster placed mom's needs before his always assuring proper heating and cooling. "Tio Alex can fix anything for us" the kids would say with trust. Seeing them smile as he played, read or did tricks they loved was his joy. He always encouraged them respect, good sportsmanship, kindness, and love. They still lay out gum, stuffed animals, make pictures, and write poems for him.

There is nothing Kyle does not share with him, tho at times there is out burst needs for his Tio's presence instead of the picture. Alex was so grateful for his good health, strong body strength, and was proud to be an American. He had love for knowledge through reading books and other materials especially the Bible, saw Gods love and creations a gift not only to be cherished but shared this I believe is what allowed him the ability to touch the hearts of so many who crossed his path. He was a none violent man but was not afraid or ashamed to make a stand for what was right. Respected and cared deeply for others. Three months prior to departure Alex had received a certificate and a CDL for professional long haul interstate driving and was enrolled at Phoenix College for computer skills. His work history was a licensed nursing assistant enjoying senior care best and was very proud of his excellent and precise talent in floor carpet installing and repair. Graduated from Edison School and attended Phoenix Union and ASU and received his GED from Phoenix Tech. The love and memories within our hearts will keep his spirit alive and near so if we listen we can hear that love still around us soft and clear. Then when we come his way alone he will be there to greet us in with that smile and say "Welcome Home." I know that as the Angels and Saints of Glory drew near my son entered that beautiful city and is now dressed in white robes. Rev. 6:9,10, 11. Fisher, Jill Ann

Jill Ann Fisher, 45 year resident of Tempe, passed away July 12, 2003, two weeks short of her 76th birthday, at the East Mesa Hospice of the Valley Care Unit. Preceded in death by her parents, Thelma Foght Jones and John Paul Jones, she is survived by her husband of nearly 48 years, Dr. Marvin Fisher, a retired ASU professor, her daughters, Ann, Sarah and Laura, her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. John Paul Jones, M.D. and Mrs. Glenna Jones of Tucson. Jill's efforts in support of ASU began in 1958, working to persuade citizens to pass the proposition conferring University status on the former normal school. A graduate of the University of Minnesota drama program, she helped Dr. James Yeater revive theater activities at the newly renewed ASU. Appearing in several classical, Renaissance, and modern productions, she also voluntarily served as costumer. In the 1960's, when her husband held visiting appointments at universities in Greece, Norway, and California, she made homes for her family, attended to the children's schooling and greatly enlarged the family's circle of friends. (A later invitation to a German University in 1988-89 came after the children had grown, but with fewer responsibilities, she had too much time on her hands.) After the two years in Greece, she returned to Tempe and theater activities, playing the lead in Lystrata, a memorable and timely production in the years leading to the U.S. involvement in Vietnam. By the late 60's and into the 70's she deepened her interests in art history and in several areas of textile art. Her graduate study in these areas was both historical and practical and the walls of her home are adorned by the crafts she loved. Concurrently she was also drawn to more volunteer service to the University. Rudy Turk had launched a docents' program to enlarge ASU's community and educational outreach, and through that program, Jill began a long and loving relationship with the ASU Art Museum, lasting more than 25 years and including her participation in the Museum's Family Day less than a month ago. The ASU Alumni Association conferred upon Jill and her husband the James W. Creasman Award of Excellence in October, 2000. A memorial service will be held at the ASU Art Museum, 10th St. and Mill Ave., Wed., July 23rd. Donations may be directed to the Hospice of the Valley or to the ASU Foundation for support of the Marvin and Jill Fisher Endowment Fund. The Arizona Republic 7/17/2003.

Hillman, Esther Marley

Esther Marley Hillman, 89, moved on to her next great adventure on July 11, 2002 and the world lost some of its brilliance. The ocean's roar muted in sorrow at the loss of one of its favorite mermaids. And the hearts of everyone she touched developed large Esther-shaped spaces that will likely never be filled. A woman who lived each and every moment to the fullest, she personified strength, energy and sheer perseverance. Her prize-winning smile warmed every space and her keen intelligence reflected a mind that was interested in everything. By her example, she taught others how to live every moment to its fullest. With a heart as young as spring, she loved all children and her family above all else and was happiest when she was with them, at the ocean or riding her jet ski at Lake Powell. Born Esther Villett Houghton in Denver, CO, she grew up in Santa Fe, NM and settled in Arizona in 1938, but for many years she spent summers in Salinas, CA to escape the summer heat and be near her beloved ocean. She was preceded by her 2nd husband, James B. Hillman, her 1st husband, Albert Marley, and her 2nd son Daniel Vinson Marley. She is survived by her son Norman Marley (Cathy), her son Vince's widow Susanne, and her sons Stephen Marley and Craig Hillman (Susan), 8 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and 5 great-great-grandchildren. In 1942 they were appointed by the Methodist Board of Missions to Liberia, where Maurice served as principal and Lois as a teacher in the Methodist high school. Three years later they were transferred to the Congo where they served for many years. Lois learned Swahili and taught it to new missionaries. She conducted classes for the development of the African women and was treasurer for the mission. She was a frequent hostess for missionaries coming and going from the interior. But first and foremost, Lois was always a wife and helpmate to Maurice and Mom to her sons. Political turmoil over the independence of Congo necessitated several evacuations. During one period when it was unsafe for wives to be with their husbands in Congo, Lois taught Swahili at the Defense Language Institute in Monterey, CA. In 1969 Lois and Maurice were assigned to responsible positions at the headquarters of the United Methodist Board of Missions in New York City. In 1977 they returned to the Congo where they served until retirement in Phoenix, Arizona in 1980. Lois was active in the Aldersgate United Methodist Church and spoke frequently in other churches. A resident of the Beatitudes since 1989, Lois served as secretary to the "Religious Life Council" and corresponding secretary for the Beatitudes Auxiliary. When asked recently why she decided to become a missionary, she replied, "I felt God's call to serve when I was thirteen years old." She was faithful to that call to the end, always seeking ways to serve. A Memorial Praise service will be held in the Beatitudes Life Center at the Beatitudes Campus of Care, 1610 W. Glendale Ave., Phoenix, AZ on Saturday, July 19, 2003. Memorial donations may be made to the Beatitudes Campus of Care or to the Aldersgate Church Foundation. The Arizona Republic 7/17/2003.
