For those of us lucky enough to be a part of her life you were always greeted with "Hi Love" and you knew she meant it from the heart. Betty's passion in life was her family. Her love for her husband Gino, and children did not stop there she embraced their spouses as if they were also her own. Betty was a devoted grandma to her precious granddaughters, she was the kind of grandma who got down in the trenches with the girls and made tents, played house, read stories and could create outfits on her sewing machine for the girls that only Betty could make. She was the kind of grandma all kids should be lucky enough to have. She was also a person that when you met her you left knowing you had been touched by a very unique and special woman. Betty was just Betty and that speaks volumes. She loved her family and she loved her life. She lived her life her way and enjoyed it immensely. Betty also met the end of her life on her terms, with dignity and grace. She left behind countless people whose life she has touched in a positive way. In our lifetime people come and go, if you were one of the lucky ones you knew Betty and you will never forget her. Let that be her legacy, to have known her was to love her. Fisher, Jill Ann

Jill Ann Fisher, 45 year resident of Tempe, passed away July 12, 2003, two weeks short of her 76th birthday, at the East Mesa Hospice of the Valley Care Unit. Preceded in death by her parents, Thelma Foght Jones and John Paul Jones, she is survived by her husband of nearly 48 years, Dr. Marvin Fisher, a retired ASU professor, her daughters, Ann, Sarah and Laura, her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. John Paul Jones, M.D. and Mrs. Glenna Jones of Tucson. Jill's efforts in support of ASU began in 1958, working to persuade citizens to pass the proposition conferring University status on the former normal school. A graduate of the University of Minnesota drama program, she helped Dr. James Yeater revive theater activities at the newly renamed ASU. Appearing in several classical, Renaissance, and modern productions, she also voluntarily served as costumer. In the 1960's, when her husband held visiting appointments at universities in Greece, Norway, and California, she made homes for her family, attended to the children's schooling and greatly enlarged the family's circle of friends. (A later invitation to a German University in 1988-89 came after the children had grown, but with fewer responsibilities, she had too much time on her hands.) After the two years in Greece, she returned to Tempe and theater activities, playing the lead in Lyistrata, a memorable and timely production in the years leading to the U.S. involvement in Vietnam. By the late 60's and into the 70's she deepened her interests in art history and in several areas of textile art. Her graduate study in these areas was both historical and practical and the walls of her home are adorned by the crafts she loved. Concurrently she was also drawn to more volunteer service to the University. Rudy Turk had launched a docents' program to enlarge ASU's community and educational outreach, and through that program, Jill began a long and loving relationship with the ASU Art Museum, lasting more than 25 years and including her participation in the Museum's Family Day less than a month ago. The ASU Alumni Association conferred upon Jill and her husband the James W. Creasman Award of Excellence in October, 2000. A memorial service will be held at the ASU Art Museum, 10th St. and Mill Ave., Wed., July 23rd at 5:15pm. Donations may be directed to the Hospice of the Valley or to the ASU Foundation for support of the Marvin and Jill Fisher Endowment Fund. Cox, Jim

Jim Cox. On July 16, 2003 at 7:50 PM, surrounded by love in his home, our precious Jim Cox went to be with the Lord. He had courageously fought a 14 month battle with kidney cancer. Jim's faith in the Lord Jesus coupled with his humility and grateful heart encouraged all who knew him. Even after nearly 27 yrs. of marriage his wife Pam "counted it a privilege" to have had Jim as her husband. A fiercely loyal and committed man, Jim kept his priorities in order and constantly showered love on his family, friends and "his" company, Southwest Airlines. From an early age Jim's dream was to become a full-time pilot. He often said how incredibly blessed he was to have had his dreams realized. Jim was an extraordinary person, completely other oriented and the solid rock in every situation. Many people counted on Jim. His mother penned these words about Jim many years ago: "Son, You rose to the occasion, You always meet the need, You were always there, You reacted to the situation, You had such comprehension, You showed both love and care." Born June 27, 1945 in Kansas City, Missouri, Jim spent his young years in Missouri and graduated from Joplin Senior High School in 1963. He went to Le Tourneau College in Texas for a year but left to pursue his dream of becoming a pilot. In 1964 he got his private pilot's license and became a flight instructor. In 1965 Jim joined the Navy and served on the USS Ticonderoga as an air traffic controller for four years. After the Navy, Jim helped his dad with the leasing and daily operation of a Standard gas station in Kansas City, Missouri. In 1971, Jim headed to Wisconsin for his first fulltime flying job with S.M.B. Each flying job gave him unique flying experiences. Sentry Insurance took him flying around the world on a G-III and Falcon-50. He loved everything about flying and found his greatest joy working for Southwest Airlines. Jim believed Herb Kelleher and Colleen Barrett to be special people whose personal dedication made working for Southwest Airlines far more than just a job. Jim was as proud of his Southwest Airlines uniform as he was of his navy uniform. The last words of Jim focused on the importance of serving the Lord and spending time with his family. His favorite book was the bible and his faith gave him great courage during his illness. Jim is survived by his mother, Thelma, who resided in a nursing home in Glendale, Arizona. He is also survived by his wife, Pam, who lives in Scottsdale, Arizona, and his beloved children, Ashley, 19 yrs. and Justin 25 yrs. He has three sisters; Carolyn, who resides in Glendale, Arizona; Becky, who resides in Phoenix, Arizona and Jan, who lives in Brisbane, Australia. The memorial service will be held August 2, 2003 at Scottsdale Bible Church Chapel (480-824-7200) with a reception to follow in the family home. Ronan, Beatrice Elizabeth Gavin

Beatrice Elizabeth Gavin Ronan, our beloved mother and grandmother, passed away peacefully on July 23, 2003 in her Scottsdale home of 50 years. Purposeful and resolute to the end, her strength of character, her active intellectual life, her unique sense of humor and her devotion to family are her lasting gifts to all of us who love her. Born May 5, 1915 in Austin, MN to Emmet and Mae Gavin, she was the oldest daughter and second of eight children. She attended St. Augustine grade school and high school in Austin and graduated in 1933. She matriculated in 1936 to St. Mary's Hospital's School of Nursing in Minneapolis and graduated from St. Louis University in 1940. She moved to Phoenix in 1945 and took a job teaching nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital. It was during this time that she met Charles Ronan and they were married April 15, 1947. Initially believing they could not have children, Charlie and Bea were foster parents for Catholic Social Services and Maricopa County Welfare Agency until the birth of their first of nine children in 1949. Charlie passed away 34 years ago to the day on July 23, 1969. Bea's faith was a dominant feature of her life. She and Charlie were founding members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Scottsdale, AZ, and at one point, there was a Ronan in every grade in the parish school! They were instrumental in establishing the Holy Family Retreat Association in 1951 in the Valley to enable married couples to make spiritual retreats together. Bea was also active in Sodality, the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women and Catholic Daughters of America. She was awarded National Catholic Mother of the Year in 1959. Also in 1959, Bea received the St. Louis University Alumni Award. Following Charlie's passing, she worked for 18 years in the parish's Religious Education office until her retirement in 1987. Bea's life work was loving and nurturing her family. She had an intense interest in each of our lives, and each of us felt especially blessed when the challenges of our lives moved us to the top of her daily prayer list. She enjoyed visits from her relatives in the Midwest and relished the opportunities to return there for school and family reunions. An avid reader, few could match her skill at working crossword puzzles. But what we will miss the most is that she was an engaging conversationalist, who could weigh in, to her dying day, on events in the world, great and small. She is survived by her children and grandchildren: Emmet (Pris), and their sons Rob, Mike, Brian and Kevin; Bernard (Myra), and their children Carmen, Urshel, Martez and Bea; Anne; Jeanne Paige (David) and their children Charlie, Maureen and Nick; Dennis (Jana); Tom (Nancy), and their daughter Emily; Pat (Nancy), and their sons John, Joe, Charlie and Tim; Terry (Diann), and their sons Andy and Zac; Kathy Curry (John), and their daughters Laura, Teresa, Clare, Elizabeth, Grace and Anne. She is also survived by her sister, Dorothy Murphy, of Colorado. Vigil will be held at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, 3801 N. Miller Rd., Scottsdale Friday, July 25 at 7pm with visitation beginning at 5pm. Funeral Mass will be Saturday, July 26 at Our Lady of Perpetual Help with graveside services to follow at St. Francis Cemetery, 2033 N. 48th St., Phoenix. We ask that in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to St. Vincent de Paul Society or Hospice of the Valley. Published in the Arizona Republic from 7/25/2003 - 7/26/2003.

Schmieder, Ruby Mabelle

RUBY MABELLE (HARKEY) SCHMIEDER 1909-2003 Ruby Mabelle Schmieder passed away peacefully in her sleep on July 20, 2003, the day before her 94th birthday. Ruby Harkey was born to a pioneering family in Superior, Arizona, on July 21, 1909, sixth of eleven children. Her mother and father, Zella and Reuben Harkey, migrated from Texas to the territory of Arizona in 1902, seeking work in the copper mines. The family lived in a tent, and endured the hardships of desert life, disease, hostile Indians, and very limited financial resources. At age 8, she and her entire family survived small pox. Most of Ruby's early education was home-schooling, which included learning skills such as traditional quilt-making and cooking. She attended high school in Miami, and then Mesa, Arizona. In 1927 she entered Tempe State Teachers College, and after completing her diploma, was offered a teaching position in the Osborn School district. Later she taught at Longview School. In 1933, Ruby joined an Omnibus tour of the eastern United States, and in 1934 she sailed to Cuba via the Panama Canal. In 1936 she embarked on an extensive tour of the Orient, a very progressive activity for a single young lady. Ruby Harkey married Otto Schmieder in December, 1936. Otto was a German immigrant who had come to Arizona to be cured of tuberculosis. Their first son, Carl, was born in 1938, and the second son, Robert, in 1941. In 1950 their daughter Linda was born. Most of their life for the next 40 years revolved around family and a large circle of friends. Otto started and developed a watchmaking and jewelry business, and Ruby supported that career as homemaker. As a couple they were very active in the First Presbyterian Church, square dancing, and extensive volunteer work, including the Crippled Children's Hospital, Cub Scouts, Campfire Girls, Youth Club, the Exchange Club, and the Salvation Army. In 1977 Ruby received the Salvation Army's highest award, the Book of Golden Deeds. Ruby and Otto lived primarily in Phoenix, but in the early 1940's they acquired a cabin in the Mountain Club of Prescott, and spent all their summers there. After retirement, the couple traveled the world extensively, often on oceanic cruises and often to Otto's home-town of Schramberg, Germany. When Otto was diagnosed in the mid-1980s with Alzheimer's, Ruby became his loving caregiver, and devoted herself to him until his passing in 1994. She suffered bitter anguish when her oldest child Carl lost his life in his small plane in 1999, at the age of 60. Ruby's sunset years were spent at two comfortable facilities in Prescott, where she enjoyed a constant stream of loving friends and relatives. Ruby was a gifted writer and record-keeper. She wrote several small books, including a history of the Mountain Club ("Prescott's Unique Mountain Club"), "Sulphur Smoke: Stories of a Pioneer Family in Arizona," "The Clock Doctor [Otto Schmieder]," and "Relative Recipes: A Collection of Recipes from 1900 to 1990." Her personal scrapbooks contain an extraordinary continuous record of 70 years, and include friendship with many prominent Arizona personalities. The Schmieders were members of Arizona First Families. Ruby Schmieder's life spanned nearly a century, from the days of the pioneers to the complex high-technology modern society. All who knew her will recall that she never complained, always had positive words and patience for others, was extraordinarily generous with her time and resources, and was resolute in her devotion to family. She was fortunate to have always been in good health, and her wit, memory, and personal charm were undimmed until the last. In her last months, she was surrounded by people who loved and respected her, and her smile showed that their love was returned by hers. Her final transition was graceful, and she was at peace. She is survived by two children, Dr. Robert William Schmieder of Walnut Creek, California, and Dr. Linda Marie Schmieder of Prescott, Arizona; a brother Walter Jasper Graham of Pinetop, AZ; seven grandchildren: Gail S. Gropen of Boston, MA, Susan Schmieder of Phoenix, Nancy S. Hacker of Altadena, CA, Amy Schmeider of Santa Clara, CA, Robyn S. Hannon of Solvang, CA, Russell Otto Schmieder of Stockholm, Sweden, and Robert Randall Schmieder of Geneva, Switzerland; and five great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Otto Schmieder (1994), and her oldest son Otto Carl (1999). Memorial Services will be held in Prescott at the Trinity Presbyterian Church at on Saturday, July 26, and in Phoenix at the Historic First Presbyterian Church on Monday, July 28. Ruby's ashes will be interred in Greenwood Memorial Cemetery in Phoenix. The Arizona Ruffner Wakelin Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements. The family encourages donations to Ruby's favorite charities: the Salvation Army and the John C. Lincoln Hospital. The Arizona Republic 7/25/2003.

Cox, Jim

Jim Cox - On July 16, 2003 at 7:50 PM, surrounded by love in his home, our precious Jim Cox went to be with the Lord. He had courageously fought a 14 month battle with kidney cancer. Jim's faith in the Lord Jesus coupled with his humility and grateful heart encouraged all who knew him. Even after nearly 27 yrs. of marriage his wife Pam "counted it a privilege" to have had Jim as her husband. A fiercely loyal and committed man, Jim kept his priorities in order and constantly showered love on his family, friends and "his" company, Southwest Airlines. From an early age Jim's dream was to become a full time pilot. He often said how incredibly blessed he was to have had his dreams realized. Jim was an extraordinary person, completely other oriented and the solid rock in every situation. Many people counted on Jim. His mother penned these words about Jim many years ago: Son, You rose to the occasion. You always meet the need. You were always there. You reacted to the situation. You had such comprehension. You showed both love and care. Jim was born June 27, 1945 in Kansas City, Missouri, Jim spent his young years in Missouri and graduated from Joplin Senior High School in 1963. He went to Le Tourneau College in Texas for a year but left to pursue his dream of becoming a pilot. In 1964 he got his private pilot's license and became a flight instructor. In 1965 Jim joined the Navy and served on the USS Ticonderoga as an air traffic controller for four years. After the Navy, Jim helped his dad with the leasing and daily operation of a Standard gas station in Kansas City, Missouri. In 1971, Jim headed to Wisconsin for his first full time flying job with S.M.B. Each flying job gave him unique flying experiences. Sentry Insurance took him flying around the world on a G-III and Falcon-50. He loved everything about flying and found his greatest joy working for Southwest Airlines. Jim believed Herb Kelleher and Colleen Barrett to be special people whose personal dedication made working for Southwest Airlines far more than just a job. Jim was as proud of his Southwest Airlines uniform as he was of his navy uniform. The last words of Jim focused on the importance of serving the Lord and spending time with his family. His favorite book was the bible and his faith gave him great courage during his illness. Jim is survived by his mother, Thelma, who resides in a nursing home in Glendale, Arizona. He is also survived by his wife, Pam, who lives in Scottsdale, Arizona, and his beloved children, Ashley, 19 yrs. and Justin 25 yrs. He has three sisters; Carolyn, who resides in Glendale, Arizona; Becky, who resides in Phoenix, Arizona and Jan, who lives in Brisbane, Australia. The memorial service will be held August 2, 2003 at 2PM, Scottsdale Bible Church Chapel (480-824-7200) with a reception to follow in the family home.
