Miczek, Ronald J.

Ronald J Miczek, It is hard to believe a year has passed since you left our lives. It seems like only yesterday that we talked and yet, a lifetime since we have seen your smile. The pain is still very fresh but the tears come less often. We still do not understand why you left us but we are learning to deal with our loss and we pray that you are at peace. Stories of your son building your "stairway to heaven" warm our hearts and touch our souls and reminds us that you do still live on. You meant so much to so many. Not a day goes by that we do not think about you. You were one of the most special people that ever came into our lives and we all feel blessed to have known you. Thank you for all you gave to each one of us. We will treasure our memories of you our whole lives. Here is a "big squeeze" from us all. We love and miss you Ron. The Arizona Republic on 9/1/2003.

"Our school has lost one of its finest," said Peter Morkert, principal of Saint Theresa. "Rosie's dedication and love for teaching was evident in everything she did. Her whole life was about others-her students, her friends, her colleagues. She was a person who truly lived out Jesus' example of serving others. She will be greatly missed." Ms. Biros was born in Minneapolis and earned a degree in elementary education with a minor in United States history from the University of Minnesota. She began her teaching career with the diocese at Saint Mary's School in 1970. She also taught at Saint Matthew's School before coming to Saint Theresa in 1980. Besides her career as a teacher, Ms. Biros enjoyed playing bridge, reading, and traveling. Her travels took her through Europe, Mexico, Southeast Asia, Japan, and all but four states. "Rosie really cared about all the kids in her classroom," said Melissa Allen, a third grade teacher at Saint Theresa and colleague of Ms. Biros' for almost 30 years. "She tried to make them aware of their responsibilities in the world, and to teach them appreciation for others. When her class went on a field trip, they sent thank-you notes not only to the people in charge of the field trip, but also to the bus driver and the chaperones. She always emphasized the importance of taking care of those in the world who are less fortunate." Leni Dwyer, a fourth grade teacher at Saint Theresa said, "Rosie was a model of integrity, fairness, and compassion. Every student in her classroom knew she loved them and cared about them no matter what." Ms. Biros is survived by four brothers, a sister, and numerous nieces and nephews. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in Minneapolis in June. There will be a memorial service celebrating Ms. Biros' life on September 3, 2003, at Saint Theresa Catholic Church, 5045 East Thomas Road, Phoenix, AZ 85018. Cooney, C.E. "Pep"

C.E. "PEP" COONEY BELOVED HUSBAND, FATHER AND GRANDFATHER C.E. "Pep" Cooney, beloved husband, father and grandfather and a longtime business and community leader, passed away on Wednesday, Sept. 3, 2003. He was 70. Born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, he learned his sense of community growing up in America's heartland during the Great Depression. He loved and excelled at sports, particularly in wrestling and baseball, and earned the Eagle Scout badge as a Boy Scout. Pep attended the University of Nebraska at Omaha and the University of Utah, majoring in marketing and advertising, two areas of study that would serve him well during his long, distinguished and successful career in the television industry. His imaginative marketing served him well in another area: he proposed to his wife, Cheri, in a TV commercial. His 44-year professional career began in advertising and program sales, earning him Salesman of the Year honors at 3M Corporation. He joined KRON-TV in San Francisco, eventually becoming general manager and then president of Chronicle Broadcasting. He moved to Phoenix in 1977 as president and general manager of KPNX-TV Channel 12 until 1995. During his tenure, television was taking on an entirely new direction through technology and growing as rapidly as the Valley of the Sun. Pep played a key role in the expansion and reach of both and his legacy remains as strong today as it did when he retired as president of KPNX Broadcasting Co.

and senior vice president of Gannett Broadcasting in 1998. Over the years, Pep devoted much of his time and his energies to many civic, business and professional organizations. He served as United Way Campaign Chairman and on the Samaritan Health Service Board of Directors; the KPNX-TV Minority Advisory Board; the NCCJ Board of Directors, which he chaired from 1988-90; the First Amendment Coalition Board of Directors; the Theodore Roosevelt Council of the Boy Scouts of America Executive Board; the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors, for whom he served as director and president; the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism at Arizona State University; Harris Trust Bank and United Blood Services, Inc. Two scholarship funds have been established in his name at Arizona State University, the C.E. Pep Cooney Leadership Scholarship at the Cronkite School and in the College of Public Programs. Pep received numerous awards including Distinguished Citizen from the Phoenix Union High School District; All City's Honor Convocation; Distinguished Eagle Scout Award; Distinguished Achievement Award by the College of Public Programs at Arizona State University; and the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'rith "Torch of Liberty Award." He is survived by: Cheri Cooney, his wife; children: Nicole Cooney Blomquist, Rhett Cooney, Holly Cooney Whiteman and Sean Cooney; grandchildren: Rick Rampton, Megan Rampton, Nick Rampton, Taylor Shepherd, Zach Shepherd, Seamus Cooney, Geoff Blomquist, Garrett Blomquist, Erin Blomquist O'Connor, Nathan Blomquist, Chase Cooney, Sean Cooney, Caitlin Cooney, Lexi Whiteman, Alyssa Whiteman, Madison Whiteman, Chloe Whiteman and Nicholas Whiteman. His life will be celebrated with friends and family from 7-10 p.m. Friday evening at the Arizona Country Club, 5668 E. Orange Blossom Lane in Phoenix. Public funeral services are scheduled Saturday beginning with a viewing at 10 a.m. at the LDS Arcadia Ward, 4225 N. 56th St. in Phoenix with services to follow at 11 a.m. A private graveside burial will follow. Arrangements are being handled by Messinger Mortuary, 7601 E. Indian School Road.
