

Geraldine Weakley Wed to a Physician

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 19—Miss Geraldine Louise Weakley, daughter of Rear Admiral Charles Enright Weakley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Weakley, was married here today to Dr. John Paul Wissinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell O. Wissinger of Falls Church, Va.

Capt. Francis McGann, Chaplain Corps, U. S. N., performed the Roman Catholic ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass in the Navy Chapel.

Miss Linda Enright Weakley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The other attendants were Mrs. John Patrick Baker, Mrs. Michael A. Lemp and the Misses Joan Reese, cousin of the bridegroom, and Monica Wohlfert. William R. Wissinger was best man for his brother.

The bride graduated from Immaculata Seminary here and cum laude from the Georgetown School of Foreign Service. Her husband is an alumnus of Georgetown University and its Medical School.
