

We have been unable to locate any original burying ground records; however an inventory of stones was made in 1947 and is shown below. Many gravestones have not survived the ravages of time, neglect and vandalism and no doubt many others were lost or marked with wooden crosses. We continue the research and the addition of names.

Mailla Brecken Death Scene by Tuck (PEMHF)

DIED

On Saturday the 5th inst., after a long and painful illness, which she bore with christian resignation and fortitude, Mrs. MAILLA BRECKEN, aged 85 years, relict of the late Ralph Brecken, Esquire, of this town. The Funerall will take place from her late residence on Thursday next, at One o'clock, P.M. when the friends of the family are requested to attend.

Mrs. Brecken was the last survivor of the family of the late Lieut. Col. Joseph Robinson, who raised the regiment of South Carolina Royalists, and commanded them throughout the whole of the Revolutionary War in America, in which they greatly distinguished themselves. At the termination of the war, Colonel Robinson retired upon half pay and came with his family to this Island, having sacrificed a valuable property in South Carolina to his unshaken principles of loyalty and attachment to the British Crown. Colonel Robinson was possessed of great and versatile talents, and made himself

DIED.

Yesterday, the 27th inst., after a long and severe illness, Francis Longworth Esq., in the 77th year of his age. The deceased was a native of Ireland, and a branch of a highly respectable family in the County of Westmeath, where he was born. During a residence of upwards of 52 years, he was at different periods called upon to fill a number of important offices in this Island. He served four years as High Sheriff of the Island, and six years as an active and efficient County Magistrate. In 1808 he was appointed a battalion of Militia, and was, on account of age and infirmity, to retire from that service with the rank of unattached Lieut. Colonel. He was a man of steady and integrity, and his loss will be deeply felt by an affectionate family and a numerous circle of well-bow to appreciate his merits. As he lived with all men, tranquilly resigning his spirit to his Maker, with a confidence that nothing, but sufferings, could for a moment lessen. His funeral will take place at 2 o'clock on Friday next, when his friends and acquaintances are requested to attend.

PROGRAM AND BUDGET

The following is proposed to implement the preservation program:

- Survey of property
- Complete clean up
- Gravestone repair
- Landscaping and reseeding
- Fencing and gates
- Installation of lighting
- Regular maintenance
- Signage
- Research, education & publication.

In order to accomplish these things and to establish an endowment fund for perpetual care, the committee wishes to raise $200,000.

The project is supported by all levels of government, and several organizations and private firms.

St. Paul's Anglican Church, the current owner of the property, is deeding the land to the newly incorporated Old Protestant Burying Ground Inc. The original Charlottetown churches, which have provided funds in the past for minimum care, are cooperating with the new organization.

There are many, many thousands of descendants living all around the world whose help will be invaluable. Please spread the word that we need support or better still, make your own contact with others and request their participation in this project. Call us at 902-894-3007 or e-mail: gwright@isn.net

The Old Protestant Burying Ground is set up as a volunteer not-for-profit charitable organization.
