President's Message

By Bill Bluett

My wife Helen and I will be traveling to Salt Lake City in late April with other members of our society. I have been trying to determine what ancestors to focus my research on during the week we are there. Ironically, I have recently stumbled onto additional information regarding some of my Irish ancestors who happened to live in the Salt Lake City area in the late 1800's and early 1900's. I was on ANCESTRY.COM researching one of my great-grandmother's brothers whose name is John M. Fallon. His name came up in the UTAH WILLS AND PROBATE RECORDS, 1800-1985. These files probably came online within the past year. And, there it was, all 168 pages of his probate record! I couldn't believe it. The amount of information on all those pages was priceless. Unfortunately, John died in July of 1889 and the probate was completed in May of 1890. He was only 43 years of age. His siblings were all listed with their place of residency indicated in the documents. His personal possessions included: half interest in two mining operations in the Park City area, half interest in the ownership of the Cullen Hotel billiard room and saloon, a gold watch and chain, a diamond ring, stud, and collar button, one pair of gold sleeve buttons, and a horse named "Jimbo". I'm still sifting through all the documents for other additional information. Also, I have found numerous historic newspaper articles regarding John Fallon online at the Library of Congress Historic Newspapers, Utah Digital Newspapers, Genealogy Bank, and NewspapersArchive.com. As it turned out, he was quite an interesting individual. I am planning on putting together a timeline of his life and possibly a several page story. While in Salt Lake City in April, maybe I can locate where he is buried, find where the Cullen Hotel was located, and see if there are any historic photos of the interior of the old hotel billiard room and saloon.

As I continued searching through the UTAH WILLS AND PROBATE RECORDS, I found John Fallon's sister, Margaret Fallon Youngson listed. She was the wife of Bailey Youngson who owned the Texas House Saloon in Leadville, Colorado, and was involved in a few gunfights that made the newspapers in the 1880's. In 1888, Bailey was accused of shooting and killing a Leadville Marshall. He was later acquitted and by 1890 he and Margaret had relocated to Salt Lake City. It must have been a difficult family life for the Youngsons with Bailey's troubling background. The PROBATE RECORDS for Margaret (or Maggie as she was known) indicated that she died in November of 1898. The probate records consisted of 32 pages and it appears from her obituary in these documents that she took her own life by poisoning herself. Life with her husband may not have been a pleasant one. But, one key item in the records indicated that there was a 16 year old daughter named Hazel. This I never knew! Now, I have another family line to tract. So, in conclusion, do not overlook any probate records that your ancestors have left behind. They might contain information you've been looking for. Just the two files I have found in Utah opened a huge door that will help me expand my genealogy research. Check the State you're researching for existing PROBATE RECORDS and let us know what you find.

Safari News

~Bill Bluett

The Southern California Genealogical Society Library in Burbank will be our destination on March 22nd. We will leave the LDS Church parking lot at 9:00 A.M. You might bring a lunch with you. If you don't, there are a few eateries within a short walking distance. This library has a large book collection as well as computers and CD's for researching. Also, this is an excellent location for French-Canadian research, German research, and many documents regarding Cornwall, England. Also, we may stop at the Immigrant Genealogical Society Library (which is also in Burbank) for a couple of hours. Hopefully, they will be able to accommodate us from approximately 4:30 PM until 6:30 PM. Don't forget $$$ for your driver. There will be plans for dinner on the way home. Contact Bill Bluett to reserve a spot. You can search the SCGS library catalog before the trip by going to: www.scgsgenealogy.com/catalogMain.htm. You can go to the Immigrant Library website at: www.immigrantgensoc.org and check them out as well.

February Meeting

~ Bill Bluett

Our guest speaker for our February monthly meeting was Toni Perrone. Her topic was Researching Your German Ancestors. Toni presented a wealth of information to our group regarding where to start your research, understanding the spelling of German names, how to locate the town or village your ancestor came from, and an abbreviation guide for reading information found in German books. Also, Toni encouraged our members to visit the IMMIGRANT GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY located in Burbank. They have a large collection of books, materials, maps, and microfilm with focus on the German speaking areas of Europe. We thank Toni for an informative presentation. Prior to her program, our members enjoyed some great refreshments provided by four of our members. Our contributors were: Judith Bryant, Noel Jensen, Diane Wahrman, and Pat Yocky.

Membership Update

We had 96 members and 4 guests at the February meeting. All guests joined. The 96 equaled the record set in January 2014, May 2015 and September 2016.

New members:

Karol Benner, San Clemente, e-mail karolbenner@cox.net – searching Charles Fraine, 1845-1928; Clementine Peticoline b. 1852/53, both from Ranrupt, Alsace France; Louis Peticoline and Clementine Friche, parents of Clementine.

New Membership Chairperson

~Bill Bluett

I am pleased to announce that Sue Naegeli has accepted this position and will now be handling the Membership rolls for SOCCGS. She has been a very active member of our society. Last year, Sue replaced Mary Jo McQueen (who has relocated to Ogden, Utah) as the coordinator of the first Friday of the month Genealogy Research Special Interest Group. Also, she has attended many of our safari trips in the past. We welcome Sue as a new "board member" and thank her for making this commitment. Also, we thank Jack Naylor for the years of diligent work and service he has put in to keep our records up to date. Of course, we have all enjoyed his approach when introducing our monthly meeting guests and new members. I really believe his humor helped to relax folks when approached. Now, Jack can take a break while Sue takes over the reins.

PLEASE NOTE CHANGE IN DATE OF MAY SOCCGS MEETING

At the request of the LDS Church, we have rescheduled our May meeting. We will meet for our May meeting only, on MAY 13th, the second Saturday. Our speaker will be our own Francie Kennedy.

Genealogy Tip of the Day <http://genealogytipoftheday.com>

Where was the Deed Acknowledged? Posted 13 Feb 2017

When heirs are selling property after a death, always look to see where the deed was acknowledged. The deed will have to be recorded in the county in which the property was located, but heirs may acknowledge the deed before a local official where they live. That local official will indicate the location in which he was authorized to act as a notary, justice of the peace, etc. That location can help you to determine where the person was living at the time the deed was acknowledged, even if the deed itself does provide any residential information on the grantors.

Information Meetings Scheduled for 2017 Salt Lake City Trip

~David Flint

Information meetings are scheduled soon for our members registered for the 2017 Salt Lake City trip. These meetings are intended to help those in the trip group get prepared before leaving home, including developing a research plan for their work in the Family History Library when they arrive.

If you are registered for the trip and want to get yourself ready, you can attend the meetings on March 6, March 20, and April 3. The first two sessions are general information meetings, and the third meeting is a workshop to develop your research plan. All meetings are on a Monday 2:00-4:00 p.m. in the Saddleback Room at the Mission Viejo City Hall. Anyone is welcome to attend. Come and learn more about the trip, and you are welcome to bring family or friends who would like to know what you will be doing in Salt Lake City. If you have any questions, please contact David Flint davidflint@cox.net.

My Genealogy Surprises

~Michelle Cahill

Surprise #1: My nephew Sean and I often talked about exploring our genealogy. In 2001, he posted a request on Genforum for any information on my grandmother (father's side), Mary Wardner Cahill, originating from New Hampshire. Several months later we received a reply from a Wardner relative who told us of the Wardner Family Association. They listed my grandmother as having four children—she ultimately had nine. We learned we had over 1700 Wardner relatives whose ancestry had been documented in a tome the size of a phone book! Unfortunately, the “book” is not digitized. At that time, it was typed on a typewriter by a since deceased, diligent older relative. Copies were available for purchase at that time, so I do have one. I think the information is currently “stuck” with no one having the time to digitize it, or update it, though a couple of us talked about that need a while back.

Surprise #2: My father's Army Air Corps brothers, Tom Cahill and Jack Cahill, were killed in action on bombing missions in Europe a few weeks apart near the end of World War II. As was common in many families, painful details of such losses didn't filter down, and our history became fragmented. My brother, my cousins and I knew little about these boys and always assumed we would learn nothing further. In 2012 we found over 500 pages of letters they wrote to their mother during the war. Seventy years after they died, I finally “met” my uncles. The letters also explained a vague sadness I always sensed and helped me to understand the trauma of their loss that had trickled from their generation to mine. To weave our family back together in my mind, I compiled their letters in a book, Dear Mom: A Family Finds Its Past in World War II Letters Home. email mcahill79@comline.com.

QUERIES

Subj: Photo of WW II soldiers

Seeking suggestions on where to post a photo of unidentified WWII soldiers (except for my father). It's on my blog – <https://tinyurl.com/ztx669>. The WWII-related Facebook groups don't seem appropriate. Please send suggestions to me Denise Hibsich Richmond – email denisedigsroots@yahoo.com

Members can send queries by email to SOCCGSNL@att.net, please type "SOCCGS Query" in subject line. See the December 2016 Saddleback Valley Trails for guidelines.

Query Update

Patti Liebenow submitted a query in January 2017. She did receive a response to her Query: "I haven't had any success with the marriage record I was searching for, but Herb Abrams sent me a copy of the Saline County Marriage Records 1851-1869. He found it on FamilySearch.org and downloaded it and e-mailed it to me. This is where I was pretty sure William Kennedy and Lizzie Parks married about 1855. Now I can rule out Saline County and look elsewhere."

Also from Patti Liebenow: Judy G. Russell announced a new Oklahoma index site that launched on January 9th: Ok2Explore is a free searchable index of births and deaths that occurred in the state of Oklahoma. Included is limited information on births occurring more than 20 years ago and deaths occurring more than 5 years ago. Visitors to the site may search the index using any combination of the subject's name, date of event (birth or death), county of event, and sex of the subject. OK2Explore.health.ok.gov
