

House shown on 1869 map as owned by

M. MILLARD

No description of the interior of this house, prior to renovation, is now available.

This is the house now in the Valley Mobile Homes Park.

April 20, 1954 - v. 76 p. 219

Ira and Helen Wilcox purchased from Frances (Ames) Fish property bounded westerly by the New London & Northern R. R. Co. northerly by land formerly owned by C. W. Tilden, now by
O. W. Merrow and A. & M. Nedwied; easterly by the Merrow-South Willington highway, southerly by highway from Route 32 to Coventry town line and land formerly of Merrow & Millard, now of Harry L. Bradley and Ira & Helen Wilcox.
This is the same premises conveyed in a quit-claim deed from Harry to Frances Ames, May 8, 1951 - v. 58 p. 632.

July 13, 1948 - v. 67 p. 419

Harry and Frances Ames purchased from F. W. Millard

Apr. 28, 1900 - v. 41 p. 93

F. W. Millard

Norman Stanley

Mar. 24, 1894 - v. 40 p. 111

Norman Stanley

Milo Millard Est.

property bounded westerly by New London & Northern R. R. Co., northerly by land formerly owned by C. W. Tilden, easterly by highway leading from Merrow to So. Willington, southerly by highway and land formerly of Merrow & Millard, known as the homestead of said Millard.

Signed by the trustee of M. Millard Est., Mar. 24, 1894.

Sept. 27, 1882 - v. 37 p. 34

Milo Millard purchased from Joseph B. Merrow

"First piece, known as the homestead or residence of said Millard, bounded - northwest corner by New London and Northern Railroad, corner of land of George W. Merrow, along Merrow's land and westerly along highway to corner of land of Merrow & Millard - along highway to railroad, northerly along R. R. land to beginning. Contains 3 acres with all buildings. (Measurements in rods, etc.)