											Elaine sent me a photo of Sallie Warren stating that she was J J Martin's Grandmother which would make her Joseph's mother-in-law. There was a Sallie Warren, living with a sister Sarah Carpenter, in Joseph's neighborhood on the 1880 Census. On the 1870 Census Sallie is living in Franklin, NC with husband Drewry T. Warren. On the 1900 Census Sallie is living with a son, Thomas, in Coirne. According to Census Records an Elyjah W. and Elizabeth Warren also lived in Joseph's neighborhood and are likely the parents of the Warren infants buried along with Matilda, Little Mary and the Smith infants in the little Warren-Martin Cemetery near Cornelia. (Another source says Matilda was daughter of Robert Warren and Sarah Carpenter)

											Ben SMITH								5/?/1868	GA

											(There is a story in Scroggs Family that Ben's sister was Joseph Martin's 2nd wife, Fannie, and a story in the Martin Family Joseph's second wife was a 19 year old girl. Christopher Smith, a neighbor, had a daughter named Fannie and a grandson Ben. If you thought Fannie was Ben's sister instead of his Aunt both stories might make sense. I am unable to confirm these stories. It appears that Christopher Smith's daughter Fannie was Joseph's 2nd wife since the age matches the woman beside him at LGC, Indiana's husband Ben appears to be the son of Harmon P. and Celia Smith from White County. Harmon and Celia moved into the Martin-Smith neighborhood in Habersham Co. in their old age. I believe there is some relationship between the two Smith Families but have been unable to discover it.
