

In Appreciation...

On behalf of the family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the memorial service.

Arthur Bowick, Inc.

OCONEE CHAPEL

Funeral Directors

2370 STATE HIGHWAY 53 WATKINSVILLE, GA 30677

(706) 769-5688

The Walton Tribune,

June 30, 1999

Alexander S. Durden

Alexander S. Durden, 104, of High Shoals, died Sunday, June 20, 1999.

A native of Walton County, he was the son of the late Judge Durden and Martha Palmer Durden.

He was married to the late Mattie Bell Mitcham Durden who died in 1991.

A retired farmer and former railroad security agent, he was a member of Union Christian Church. Funeral services were held Wednesday, June 23, in Arthur Bowick's Oconee Chapel, Watkinsville, with the Rev. Kenneth Courts officiating. Interment was held in Corinth Memorial Gardens in Loganville.

Grandsons served as pallbearers.

He is survived by his daughters, Martha D. Baugham of Alexandria, Va., Rachel Haulk of Monroe, and Louise Turner and Ethel Bradford, both of Ocala, Fla.; sons, Harold Durden and Fred Durden, both of Bishop, Gene Durden of Watkinsville and George Durden of Winterville; 18 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren; several great-great-grandchildren; and nieces and nephews.