

FINE YOUNG MATRON
DIES AT LOGANVILLE

Wednesday afternoon, after an illness with toxine poisoning covering a period of ten days, at her Loganville home, at the age of 42, death claimed a most excellent young matron, Mrs. John W. Durden, who, prior to her marriage, was Miss Dovie Allene Brand, daughter of Mrs. Albert Brand and the late Mr. Brand, and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Durden, of Youth, and a consecrated, influential member of Oak Grove Presbyterian church.

The funeral rites, taking place Friday morning at 11 o'clock, at the late residence, were followed by the interment in Bay Creek church cemetery.

Besides her devoted husband, a splendid gentleman, one of our best friends in the county, a fine citizen, Mrs. Durden is survived by her mother and four small children, as follows: Charlotte, Pauline, Vivian and McElyn Durden, and one brother, Clarence Brand, of Athens, to all of whom we extend our deep, sincere sympathy.
