

Floyd Walter Adams

Floyd Walter Adams was resurrected to his Heavenly home on Nov. 23, 2010. The celebration of his life took place at First Baptist of Monroe on Nov. 26. Memorial contributions may be made to alz.org, 1-800-272-3900.

Floyd was born to Ruby and Floyd Adams at home in Buchanan on April 29, 1926, and was the first of five children. While serving in the Navy, he met the love of his life and bride of 63 years, Ella America Breedlove Adams, on the boardwalk of Daytona Beach, Fla. As a dedicated and devoted husband and father, he loved nothing more than being surrounded by his family. Floyd lived his life humbly according to Godly principles. He was a deacon and Sunday school teacher of 9-year-old boys for a number of years at Hilton Terrace Baptist Church, Columbus, where he and Ella made their home for 33 years. Upon retiring from Burrough's Corporation after 37 years of loyal service, they made their home in Monroe, where they have lived for 25 years.

Floyd is survived by his wife, Ella; and three children, Karen (Herb) Sheheane, of Quincy, Fla., Barbara (Mike) Summers, of Columbus, and David (Teresa) Adams, of Acworth. He proudly answered to the call of "Granddaddy" by nine grandchildren, Dene (Carrie) Sheheane, Tish (Rob) Bachert, Gabe (Nichole) Sheheane, Zac Slay, Lindsay (Chas) Darnell, Tattie Grace Estes, Austin Slay, Rachel Adams and Daniel Adams, and nine great-grandchildren, Riley, Max and Tess Sheheane, Robby and Ella Bachert, Allura and Hunter Sheheane, and Alyssa and Madison Darnell.

Daddy will forever be in our hearts and thoughts and will be greatly missed.

Meadows Funeral Home, Inc. was in charge of the arrangements.
