

Fred C. Durden

Fred C. Durden, 65, of High Shoals died Thursday, Jan. 20, 2000 at the Veterans Medical Center in Augusta.

A native of Walton County, he was the son of the late A.S. Durden and Mattie Mitcham Durden.

He resided in Oconee County upon retirement from the U.S. Army and was a poultry and cattle farmer.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 22, in Arthur Bowick's Oconee Chapel with the Rev. Kenneth Courts officiating.

Interment was held in Oconee Memorial Park with full military honors.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Parham Durden; daughters, Wanda Wages of Bishop and Vicki Stout of Lithonia; son, Dean Durden of Warner

Robins; sisters, Rachel Haulk of Monroe, Ethel Bradford and Louise Turner, both of Ocala, Fla. and Martha Baugham of Alexandria, Va.; brothers, Gene Durden of Watkinville, Harold Durden of Bishop and George Durden of Winterville; six grandchildren, and nieces and nephews.

Arthur Bowick's Oconee Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.