

James Michael Adcock

James Michael Adcock, 54, of Monroe, passed away on Oct. 16, 2009. His funeral was held Oct 20 at Union Chapel United Methodist Church.

"Mike," as most people knew him, was a huge part of the community and a friend to many. He was the best friend and love of his life, the most devoted son and brother, the happiest most fun loving Papa, and the best Daddy a daughter could ask for.

After 30 years of owning his business, Mike changed careers and became a deputy for the Walton County Sheriff's Office. He was dedicated to his new career and was in training at the law enforcement academy at the time of his death. He was an outdoorsman who loved to hunt and fish. He also loved the sport of baseball and could talk for hours about the Braves. He adored his grandchildren and helped to coach his grandson's little league baseball team. Those little guys loved "Coach Mike." He was truly a great man and he will be missed dearly by all who knew and loved him.

He was a member of Union Chapel United Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Rebecca Hodges Adcock; his daughter, Jenny Adcock Mitchell, and her husband, Brett Mitchell; his grandchildren, Beau and Emmie Mitchell; his mother, Catherine Adcock; brothers, Randy Adcock and wife Patricia Adcock, Benny Adcock and wife Mary Nell Adcock; and sister Carolyn Wall and husband Dwight Wall.

Meadows Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
