

ELSEWHERE

JIM PAULINE COOPER, 73, of Lithonia, died Tuesday, Oct. 15, 1991. A memorial reference will be included in the 11 a.m. service Nov. 3 at Corinth Christian Church, Loganville. Miss Cooper donated her body to Emory Medical College. Miss Cooper, a native of Walton County, was a clerical worker with Crumb & Foster, Atlanta. Survivors include brother, Dan Cooper, Stone Mountain; sisters, Dale Park, Winder, and Macy Bullcock, Carolyn Briscoe, Jo Stevens and Gloria Garrett of Loganville and Vyn-detta Moore, Lithonia, and Alice Ann McCurley, Dunwoody.