

June H. Broach

June H. Broach, 69, of Monroe died Feb. 15, 2007.

A native and life long resident of Walton County, she was the daughter of the later Junior and Louise Malcom Hester. A retired LPN, she was formerly employed by the Walton County Hospital and doctor's Moreland and Ashford and was the widow of the late Haney Broach. She was the nurse for the Monroe Girl's Corps and attended the Monroe Church of God.

Funeral services were held Feb. 17, 2007 in the chapel of Arthur Bowick Funeral Home. The Rev. Gail Hester and The Rev. Wayne Durden officiated and interment was in Hill Haven Memory Gardens. Pallbearers were W. T. Spence, Greg Sellers, Josh Mobley, Frank Vargas, Jonah Mobley and Ricky Hester.

Surviving are daughter and son-in-law: Susan and Neal Mobley of Monroe; brother: Billy E. Hester of Covington; grandchildren: Jonah Mobley, Joshua Mobley and Linzie Mobley; great-grandchildren: Timothy Mobley and Justin Mobley.

Arthur Bowick, Inc. Funeral Directors were in charge of the arrangements.

The Walton Tribune
February 21, 2007