

Phillip Wesley Atha

Phillip W. Atha, 69 of Loganville, died Friday, July 28, 2006.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Sunday, July 30 in the Loganville Chapel of Tim Stewart Funeral Home. The Rev. Kenny Barrett officiated. Burial followed at Mt. Paran Church Cemetery in Monroe. Pallbearers included: Billie Mitchell, J.W. Atha, Hoyt Stancil, Chris Atha, Bob Doster and Stanley Jackson.

The son of Robert and Lelia Leach Atha. Mr. Atha graduated from

Loganville School and served in U. S. Army. Later he was employed with Ford Motor Assembly Plant, in Hapeville, Georgia as supervisor for thirty years. After his retirement he owned Atha Termite and Pest Control. Survivors include: mother of his children: Nancy A. McKissick; children: Tim and Becky Atha, Rhonda Atha Wommack, all of Monroe; grandchildren: Lindsey and Bradley Atha and Natalie and Wesley Wommack; brother: Richard Atha, Loganville; sister: Essie Ruth Jackson, Loganville;

Jessie Ford, Snellville. Tim Stewart Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Walton Tribune
August 13, 2006