

Woodfin F. Griffin

Woodfin F. Griffin, 94, of Monroe died Nov. 30, 2004.

A native and life-long resident of Walton County, he was the son of the late Wesley and Viola Adams Griffin. A farmer for many years, he was later employed by Henson Mfg. Company until his retirement. He was formerly a member of the National Guard, the Army Air Corps in World War II, and the American Legion.

A charter member of the Pannell Presbyterian Church, he remained active in the church all his life and served as an elder for more than three decades.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Dec. 2 at the Ray Memorial Presbyterian Church with Rev. Gary Lowe officiating. Interment followed at Westlawn Cemetery. Pallbearers were Tony Hutchins, Mark Meadows, Griffin Brooks, Ansel Malcom, Billy Conner, and Charles Hamm.

He was predeceased by his wife of 62 years, Druewillie Brown Griffin; brother, Jesse Griffin, and sisters Robbie Meadows and Mary Ellen Brooks.

Survivors include: daughter Harriette Griffin of Monroe; sister Marjorie Malcom of Monroe; sisters-in-law Sara Rowe of Monroe and Lillie Belle Martin of Social Circle; special caregivers Tony, Jan, and Ashlea Hutchins; and several nieces and nephews.

Meadows Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
