

REGINALD GENN (1871-1953), Grandfather of David Genn.

RG - 01	Silver cigar box.
RG - 02	Travel bar.
RG - 03	Pipes and pipe stands.
RG - 04	Bronze warrior and “Maid Marion”.
RG - 05	Mantle clock. I converted it to battery drive.
RG - 06	Barometer.
RG - 07	Wire frame glasses and pince-nez.
RG - 08	Pocket watch, 18k solid gold.
RG - 09	Pocket flask.
RG - 10	Gold poke, Yukon.
RG - 11	Water decanter.
RG - 12	Wine decanter.
RG - 13	Brass candle sticks.
RG - 14	Napkin rings, two are engraved with initials: GMG, KRG.
RG - 15	Walking stick, probably Reginald’s.
RG - 16	Diamond willow stick.
RG - 17	Wooden whisky bottle, Banff distillery is still producing.
RG - 18	A pilgrim bottle found by H. Deane-Drummond on a mountain top in S. India. (A museum piece much prized. The label of date and place, alas, has been lost.)
RG - 19	Roll-top desk, mahogany over oak. I recall this being in the back hallway of Reginald’s office, 612 Scollard (Sayward) Building, Victoria, in the early 1940’s.
RG - 20	Book case from Reginald’s office.
RG - 21	Ink stand from Reginald’s desk.
RG - 22	Letter scale from Reginald’s office. Postal rates are engraved on the brass beam.
RG - 23	Company seals from Reginald’s office.
RG - 24	Robert’s Rules.... Reginald has signed the fly leaf.
RG - 25	Safe from the Genn Accounting office. Original owner, Joseph Austin Sayward, lumber baron. Namesake for Sayward Building, Sayward Beach, Sayward Road, Sayward, Vancouver Island. The Genn Accounting firm managed much of J. A. Sayward’s business. Reginald Genn was an executor of Sayward’s will.

RG - 26	Stuff.
RG - 27	Holy Bible.
RG - 28	Common Prayer, Reginald Genn, Colquitz, Easter 1922, 16\1\38
RG - 29	Brass fire place poker.
RG - 30	Framed picture from Reginald's office.
RG - 31	Watches, jewelry.
RG - 32	Esquimalt Water Works, Metered Services.
RG - 33	Esquimalt Water Works, Registered Office. J.A. Sayward.
RG - 34	Framed picture from Reginald's office.
RG - 35	Two decks of playing cards.
RG - 36	The Bank of British North America, Victoria branch, pass book, May 1915 to November 1919. Largest deposit, June 1918, $20,000. Greatest balance, September 1919, $195, 505. No person is named as the owner. A likely candidate would be Joseph Austin Sayward.
RG - 37	The Bank of British North America safety deposit box in the name of Douglas Lake Cattle Company. This may also tie to J. A. Sayward.
RG - 38	Same as RG - 37.
RG - 39	Solid silver fish serving set.
RG - 40	Wine decanter.
RG - 41	Telephone index.
RG - 42	The H.B.C. ship, Nascopie, sailed in 1937/8 from Montreal to Prince Rupert Inlet carrying freight and passengers. It stopped at Fort Ross on Bellot Strait between Somerset Island and Boothia Peninsula where it was met by the Aklavik which had arrived from the west. Passengers exchanged ships and the two ships returned to their home ports. The Northwest Passage had become a reality. This photo was taken on that voyage in Prince Rupert Inlet by Lorene Squire, H.B.C. photographer for their Beaver magazine. The photo was hand dedicated to Marion with best regards. That likely makes it one of a kind.
RG - 43	The Tillicum is a dug-out canoe which circumnavigated the world 1900-1904. It is shown here at Samoa, Captain John Voss ant the helm, photo taken by crew member Norman

	Luxton. On the reverse is Norman Luxton's letter explaining that when they got to Samoa they were broke. They taught the German Governor to play poker. When they left, they were "unbroke".
RG - 44	The W. P. Sayward, named for William Parsons Sayward, father of Joseph Austin Sayward, a schooner operated by the Victoria Sealing Company. At one point it was seized on open water by a U.S. revenue cutter and taken to a U.S. port. A lengthy court battle ensued. The Dominion eventually won.
RG - 45
RG - 46

RG - 01

RG - 02

RG - 03

RG - 04

RG - 05

RG - 06

RG - 07

RG - 08

RG - 09

RG - 10

RG - 11

RG - 12

RG - 13

RG - 14

RG - 15

RG - 16

RG - 17

RG - 18

RG - 19

RG - 20

RG - 21

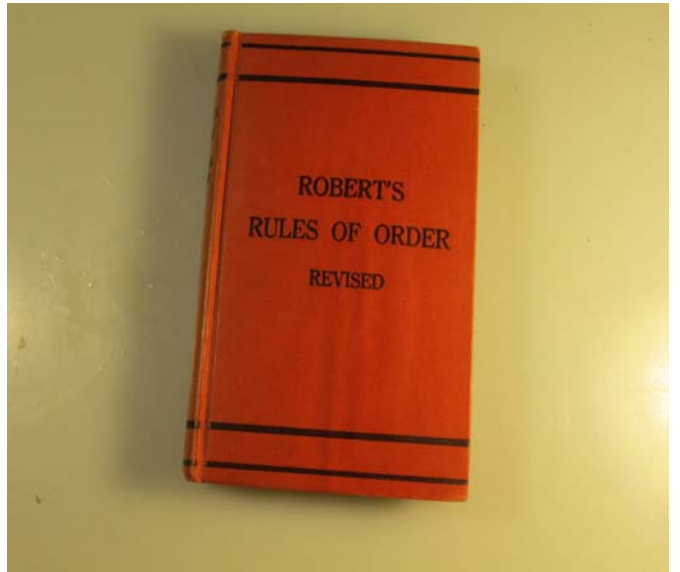

RG - 22

RG - 23

RG - 24

RG - 25

RG - 26

RG - 27

RG - 28

RG - 29

RG - 30

RG - 31

RG - 32

RG - 33

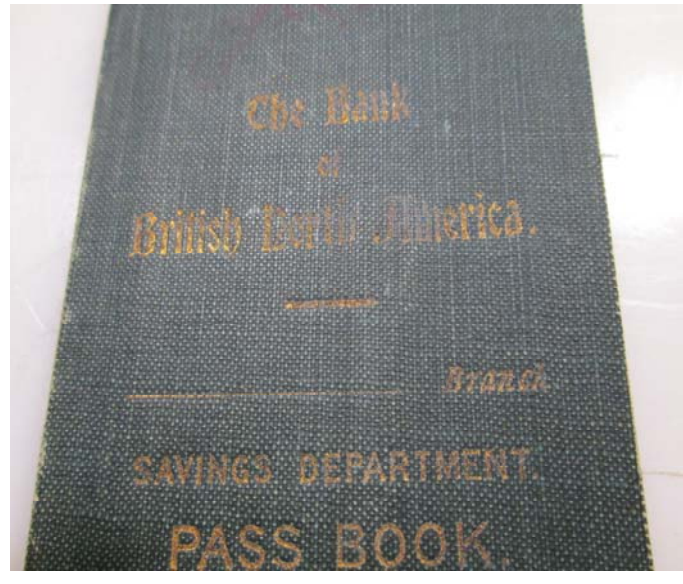

RG - 34

RG - 35

RG - 36

RG - 37

RG - 38

RG - 39

RG - 40

RG - 41

RG - 42

RG - 43

RG - 44

