

EMILY MADDISON LEWIS (1864-1951) Great Aunt,
ARTHUR LEWIS (1866-1918) Great Uncle,
HAROLD LEWIS (1892-1933) Cousin once removed of David Genn.

EML - 01	Wood cup and saucer. The H. B. C. Steamship, the Beaver, paddle wheeler, went aground at the entrance to Vancouver harbor in 1888. As it broke up over time people recovered the hardwood from the interior. This made its way into workshops and was turned into trinkets and ornaments. This is one specimen.
EML - 02	Hand made thermometer used by the Lewis family in Dawson City 1897. Glass tube has been replaced.
EML - 03	Specimen of undersea cable. It has 14 outer steel wires and a copper center wire to carry a telegraphic signal. This configuration was used in the Caribbean, joining Florida to Central and South America. Florida was connected to Newfoundland overland, then to London by the Transatlantic Cable.
EML - 04	Emily's drawing book, 1877, at age 13.
EML - 05	Royal Readers, No. IV, inscribed David Genn from Aunt Emily Lewis, 1944. I received this from Emily at age six. It seemingly commissioned me as custodian of the family treasures.
EML - 06	Imitations of Christ, Emily Lewis, May 16th 1900
EML - 07	Holy Bible, Emily Genn, Oct 1876
EML - 08	Harvard Classic Series, First Edition, 1909, 51 volumes. The volume titled "Lectures" is inscribed, David Genn From Aunt Emily, April 15th 1945. In memory of Harold (her son who died in 1933).
ADL - 01	Arthur Lewis' shaving mug. Cold creek water was placed in the upper part and whisky was poured in the base and lit. When the whisky was gone the water was warm enough to shave. I haven't tested it so will withhold judgment.
HML - 01	1906 gold watch belonging to Harold Lewis, son of Emily and Arthur. It has gone missing from the safe.

EML - 01

EML - 02

EML - 03

EML - 04

EML - 05

EML - 06

EML - 07

EML - 08

ADL - 01

