

WILLIAM HENRY (HARRY) KNOWLES (1887-1972), First cousin once removed of David Genn.

WHK - 01	First World War medals.
WHK - 02	First World War fox hole lighter. The regular cigarette lighter provides a perfect target for a sniper. This has a cord impregnated with saltpeter. When ignited it glows but does not cast a light.
WHK - 03	This whistle presumably belonged to the Chief Constable of Berwick, Scotland about 1800. He was the Great Uncle of Harry Knowles.
WHK - 04	Telescopic pencil presumably belonging to Admiral Peat about 1800. Harry referred to him as a Great Uncle. Diogo's mother-in-law was Jane Peat. The link to the Admiral has not yet been established.
WHK - 05	Medallion, "The MacPhie Medal for Religious Knowledge, awarded to Harry Knowles, 1901, Buchanan Public School.
WHK - 06	Holy Bible, William Henry Knowles.
WHK - 07	Photo album, World War I and Bamfield Cable Station.

WHK - 01

WHK - 02

WHK - 03

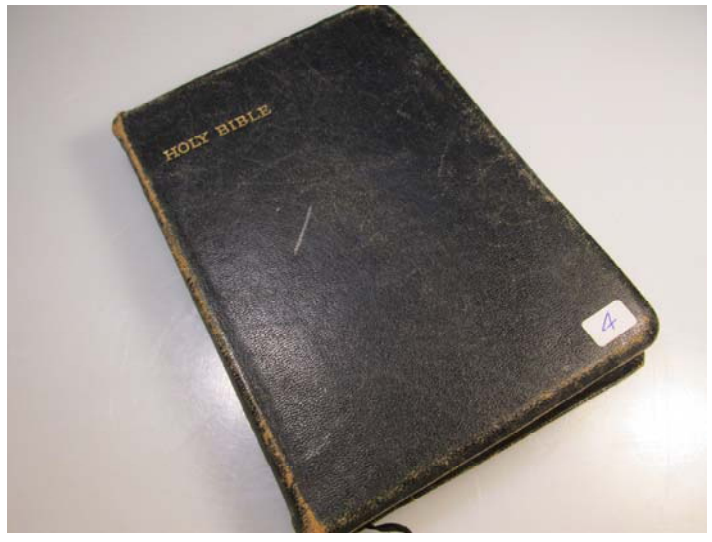

WHK - 04

WHK - 05

WHK- 05

WHK - 07

