

Bradshaw, Francis John (Jack) (notes based on Jack Bradshaw (2012) "Jinkers & whims. A pictorial history of timber-getting" and data from Roger Underwood)

Born in Boddington. Family associated with sawmill industry of W.A., since its inception. Jack grew up in the sawmill towns of Mornington and Jarrahwood, spending his high school years at boarding school in New Norcia. Graduated from Australian Forestry School in 1962. Started with the Forests Department in Pemberton in 1963. OIC of Manjimup Working Plans Office 1964-73. Also worked at Shannon River, before joining Manjimup Working Plans Office. Divisional Forests Officer in Kelmscott 1974-5, before returning to Manjimup as Planning Officer 1975-80. Inspector Operations Southern Region 1980-83. After CALM was formed in 1985, he was in Silviculture Branch and Manager Forest Management Branch 1993-99. Retired in 1999. He continues as a consultant in silviculture and forest management.