

Briggs, Alan (based mainly on Linked In data)

Graduated from WA field cadet school in 1972. BSc Forestry ANU in late 1970s ?

With Forests Department/CALM at Kelmscott in early 1970s, Moved to Harvey in 1973. In 1987 transferred from Wanneroo to Kelmscott as Regional Leader Planning.

Since 1997 has regularly lectured at Edith Cowan University to both undergraduates and MBA students. Senior Project Officer CALM and Forest Products Commission WA 1997 –1999. Manager Midwest Sharefarms, Forest Products Commission 1999 –2002. Policy Adviser to Minister Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries 2002 –2005. Manager - Natural Heritage National Trust of Australia (WA) 2005 – 2010. Research and Development Manager Australian Bluegum Plantations Pty Ltd 2009 –. Appointed an Adjunct Lecturer at ECU in 2009. Has provided lectures in Sustainable Tourism, Ecotourism Management and Tourism Business Development to undergraduate and post-graduate (MBAs) students at ECU's Churchland and Joondalup campuses.

Director Natural Heritage and Culture 2010 – . Provides direct and facilitation services in the areas of natural heritage and culture (Aboriginal and Tourism). Also provide strategic planning and business feasibility/plans for areas involving natural heritage and culture. Lecturer in Sustainable Tourism Murdoch University 2011 – . From February 2012, commenced part time work with Murdoch and initiated a PhD. Was appointed under a fixed term contract for 12 months to present lectures on Sustainable Tourism. Ngalia Team Member Ngalia Foundation 2006 – , at Crawley. (Country is Leonora/Leinsta) Has worked with Kado and Deeva Muir to promote the Ngalia Foundation as a means of conserving and interpreting their cultural heritage.

President Rotary Club of West Perth 2012 – 2013.

Committee Member - Revegetation Men of the Trees 2010 – 2012.

Malimup Board Member Malimup Foundation 2006 – Malimup, Summertime Track, South West, W.A.