

Bevege, David Ian, Dr (photo from ABC website)

Graduated from Australian Forestry School 1961. PhD.

At University of New England and CSIRO Adelaide 1967-71. Chief of Wood Technology and Forest Research Division NSW Forestry Commission 1982-86. Assistant Director General of Australian International Development Bureau 1986-91. Principal Advisor with ACIAR 1991-2002. Retired 2002.

Retired in Batemans Bay. Recipient of the forestry industry's top honour, the Norman W Jolly Medal awarded by the Institute of Foresters of Australia.

Had 45 years forestry experience in Australia and overseas including more than 120 published research papers and technical reports.