

Cromer, Robin Neal

Graduated from Australian Forestry School 1961. MSc in Forestry from University of Melbourne 1970. Worked in the ACT. First joined "The Wood Group of the ACT" (then part of the Crafts Council) in the early 1980s. I was involved in creating The Woodcraft Guild as an independent organisation and was editor of the first volume of the Guild Newsletter in 1986. Work and family commitments then took over his life until after retirement.
