

Dallen, Martin (from Department of Agriculture website)

Martin joined the Department of Agriculture Fisheries and Forestry (DAFF) as an Indigenous Cadet in March 2007. In 2010, he successfully completed his undergraduate studies and was awarded a Bachelor of Arts (Sociology) and Bachelor of Science (Forest Science) at the Australian National University (ANU) in Canberra.

Since commencement in DAFF Forestry Branch, he has been heavily involved in the National Indigenous Forestry Strategy (NIFS) and the impact of climate change on the forest sector.
