

McDougall, Reece (from Godden Mackay Logan, Heritage Consultants website)

Chief Executive Officer and Special Advisor with Godden Mackay Logan, has over 30 years experience managing heritage and environmental policy at senior and executive level. He was Executive Director of the NSW Heritage Office from 2006 to 2008 and Assistant Director/Director from 1998 to 2006. In this position he had a lead role in conserving the State's environmental heritage. Recently, as Acting Executive Director of the Cultural Heritage Division of the NSW Department of Environment, Climate Change and Water, Reece was responsible for State government policy and strategic initiatives for managing Aboriginal heritage in NSW. He also led the implementation of the National Parks and Wildlife Amendment Bill 2009, including a review of the policies, procedures and regulations relating to Aboriginal cultural heritage, permits and offences in NSW. Reece has also worked at the National Trust of Australia (NSW) and was the Environmental Manager for AWT Ensign, the commercial arm of Sydney Water.

Education/Qualifications

Bachelor of Science (Forestry), Australian National University, 1979

Master of Environmental Science, Macquarie University, 1984