

McGrath, Kelvin Paul (based on L T Carron (2000) "A brief history of the Australian Forestry School")

Born in Tasmania, spent much of his early life in Queensland. Graduated from Australian Forestry School in 1931. Served with Queensland Forestry Department and Hyne & Son Maryborough. Joined the staff of the Australian Forestry School in 1947. Attended Yale University as a lecturer and student. Gained Master of Forest in 1955. Appointed Acting Principal of Australian forestry School in 1960. Retired in 1968. Represented Australian Capital Territory in rugby league. Became Director General of the Forestry and Timber Bureau in 1959. Appointed Member of the General Division of the Order of Australia in 1979. Involved in FAO and Colombo Plan assistance missions in south America and south East Asia.