

Royal, Brian

After schooling in Albury, he attended university in Sydney and Canberra and completed degree in Science (Forestry). During his career, he worked in every forest type in NSW and held senior management roles at Tumut, Deniliquin, Eden, Albury and Sydney. These roles included bushfire management, salinity control tree plantings on farms and corporate contract, sales and marketing. he returned to Albury with Forests NSW and now lives with wife at Table Top. From June 2010 to December 2013, was a Board Member of Murray Catchment Management Authority. In 2011, he completed the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD) "Foundations of Directorship Certificate".