

Thistlewaite, Robert John, Dr (from Linked In and The Forester 2009)

Graduated from Australian Forestry School 1963. University of Queensland, Australian National University, University of NSW Ph.D thesis: Forests and water supplies in the Cotter catchment with reference to P. radiata plantations; B.Sc. For; Dip. For., 1967 – 1970.

Commenced 1971 as Principal Research Officer with Papua New Guinea Department of Forests. In 1978 became Principal Research Officer with Department of Interior in Darwin and OIC of Berrimah Research Laboratory. Then spent 8 years working mainly on agriculture. In 1986 joined aIDABs (now AusAID0 team as Natural Resources Advisor.

Executive Director Integlan Australia Pty Limited February 1989 – . Integlan (IAPL) was formed by him in 1989 to provide advisory services in the fields of forestry, agriculture and artisanal fishing. Since then IAPL has worked in 14 countries of the Pacific basin and in 4 Asian nations, as well as in Australia and her Territories. Its registered office is in Sydney but operates now from Brisbane.

Director PolyGenomX Limited 2010 – . Supporting the development and commercialisation of a process for generating stable polyloids of tree and other plant species and the inducement of traits for tolerating extreme environmental conditions.

Activities and Societies: Fellow of the Institute of Foresters of Australia. Registered Professional Forester