Forester Andrew Yates (Waratah NSW) was approved by the RPF registration Committee on 13 February 2009 in the category of General Practising Forester.

Andrew completed his Bachelor of Science Degree at the ANU in 1994 and he has also undertaken a wide range of forestry related courses.

In 1995-96 Andrew ventured to the warmer climate to provide technical support to GIS users working for the Northern Territory Government.

From 1996 - 2003 Andrew joined Forestry NSW and worked in various Forester positions including operations, harvesting and planning at Newcastle, Coffs harbour, and Taree. He then occupied various other positions, namely:

- Resource Protection Manager - Maitland 2003
- Harvesting Forester - Newcastle - 2003-05
- A/g Planning Manager - Maitland - 2005-2006
- Harvesting Officer - Maitland 2006-2008

In January 2008 Andrew commenced as a sole trader with Compass Forestry. He is still working with Compass Forestry. Compass is a sole trading enterprise with vision for future expansion on demand. It operates from Newcastle and is well positioned for work in the north coast of NSW and within the Sydney basin.
