

McKinnell, Frank Dr (notes mainly from Bush fire Front website)

Graduated from Australian Forestry School 1959. Joined Forests Department in 1960s. Completed PhD "Wood density studies in Pinus radiata D. Don". Doctor of Philosophy, Australian National University, 1970.

Over 40 years experience in bushfire research and management in WA, including being responsible for bushfire management in WA forests and national parks in the 1980s, and a research manager overseeing studies into bushfire behaviour and ecology. Has advised overseas governments on bushfire policy and management.

Silviculturist at Manjimup Research station in the early 1970s. To Busselton 1973. Transferred to Bunbury in late 1970s.