

O'Donnell, Jim (based on John Sclater's book (2001) "Lost your block. The origin of W.A.s forest block names")

Graduated from Australian Forestry School in 1930. Won Schlich medal. Also had BSc in Agriculture. Joined Forests Department c1931. First Forests Department fire control officer (1937). O'Donnell block named after him. Resigned 1945 to be Assistant Conservator of Forests in Tasmania. Killed in air crash 10.3.1946.