

Well known Heberle

Ernst August Wilhelm E Heberle

Ernst was a mining engineer in Sala, Sweden, the Director of a silver mine and business man. Ernst worked in Sweden in the 1880s-90 in the Djursholm-Sala area. He invented and had manufactured ore crushing machines, which were used at mines around the world, including in Germany, Sweden, USA, Australia, from about 1880.

Born/Geboren/Né/Nascido: 7.8.1854 Clausthal-Zellerfeld, Lower Saxony, Germany, died 27.7.1907 Luttringhausen.

Parents/Eltern/Parents/Pais: Ernst Wilhelm Heberle, mine worker CZ, mine engineer Falun, Sweden and Maria Brummer. Clausthal-Zellerfeld branch.

Married/Verheirat/Epousé/Casado: Sigrid Moberg, 1884 in Sala, Sweden. Born 1859 died 1946 Djursholm, Sweden.

Children/Kinder/Enfants/Crianças: Margareta W, Ernst WE, Astri SM, Gertrud SI, Agnes DH. All born Sala Sweden 1885-93.