Can You Help Identify the People in these Photos?

The following photos are in the collection of the Kurrajong-Comleroy Historical Society. The photos indicate they may be of Grono family members from the Books-Grono line. We have, with the Society's permission, reproduced the photos below. We are trying to confirm the identity of the people in the photos and find details for those with none.

If anyone is able to provide any information about anyone in these photos we would be most interested to hear from you. Please contact the Grono Family Association via email: gronofamily@gmail.com

GFA comment: We currently do not know how this family may be connected to the Grono family tree.

Photo 3 - Details from historical society: Taken in 1887. Studio Portrait of three men, taken at Lomer's, 805 George Street in Sydney. This photograph was taken on eight hour day.

GFA Comment: Charles J. MORGAN, husband of Margaret E. BOOKS seated on the far right. The other two men remain unidentified.

GFA Comment: The lady sitting in the centre looks like the person identified previously as Margaret MORGAN. This could possibly be Margaret E. MORGAN (nee BOOKS) with other family members.

GFA Comment: We are still looking for information as to who these people might be and how they are connected to the Grono family.
