June, 2013

We welcomed nine members for the June 11 meeting. If you noticed the lovely flower garden in front of the building, thank Lottie Braun and Joyce Davitz for taking out the early spring weeds and keeping it in shape. We love all the talents the members bring and use.

Answering some questions: Dues are still $25 per year. Check the label that shows the last year you paid dues if you have forgotten. If a letter or quarterly comes back as undeliverable, the post office charges the full amount again. i.e. $0.46 for a letter; over $2 each for a quarterly. If one comes back, we will wait to hear from you for a new address. Receipts in May totaled $75.17; Disbursements totaled $266.34.

The History of Steeleville by Imogene Fiene will be available by no later than July First in the RCGS Library, #13 Westwood Drive, Steeleville, IL. $25 plus tax, $1.56. Regular hours are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. If ordering by mail, add $5.00 for p/h.

A BOOK SIGNING of The History of Steeleville by Author Imogene Fiene will be in the RCGS Library July 4th, 12 to 3 p.m. Stop in after the parade.

Around the Office: June keeps busy answering requests, and the phone, and straightening up the office. Leona still helps with the newspapers. Midge Dobyns is faithfully every name indexing many pages of newspaper primary documentation. Lottie Braun and Joyce Davitz check the papers each week for the genealogy information to file, have been updating inventory, and prepare the regular mailings. There have been an increasing number of researchers visiting the library and happy to find family information. We're happy to see them and help.

RCGS has confirmed participation to set up at booth during Evansville Days at its City Library July 20, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Steeleville History Book by Imogene Fiene will be available there for $25 each plus tax. Randolph County Veterans Book, A Genealogy Cookbook, and several other publications will also be available. The next meeting is July 9, 2 p.m. in the RCGS office in Steeleville.
