April, 2014

Hello,

I feel so honored to have this opportunity to wish you a Blessed and Happy Easter/Passover in 2014. Spring is Here!!

We have a change in the officers. Betty Wagner has resigned as treasurer because of scheduling conflicts, but Imogene Fiene consented to be nominated and was approved by the Executive Board at the April 8th meeting. We shall continue paying the invoices and depositing the money as it is received. If you have a question about your dues or other money, she will be your contact. We thank Betty for an excellent job of record keeping and researching to find proper addresses. All reports were up to date and filed.

Also, discussed at the meeting: The group decided to accept preorders on a reprint of the popular book, Steeleville and Its Early Years written and compiled by Imogene Fiene. The first printing sold out very quickly. Only a limited number will be ordered. If anyone is interested in ordering the book, please contact Imogene or RCGS at 618-965-3705 by May 12. All proceeds go to maintaining the genealogy facility for researchers.

We still have the names of those that notified us after the last announcement, but feel free to call to check if we have your name. Please share this with anyone that may be interested.

REMINDER: The Heyls are still busy finding GPS locations to those cemeteries. All help is much appreciated. Look and Like the Facebook page for the latest. 172 cemeteries have been located, but if you know of any burial area, no matter how small, that you feel may not be listed yet, please give us a call or email to check it out.

Items for the quarterly need to have the text dark enough to print properly.

A REMINDER: We have two programs planned that will be of interest: May 8th, Tex Banash will present "Little Known Facts About Illinois" at Chester Library, 1:30 p.m. and July 1st, 6:30 p.m. Alan Hoffman will present facts from the Journal he translated from French, Marquis de Lafayette in America, in 1824 and 1825.
