June, 2014

Welcome to Summertime! New experiences await!

The June 10th regular meeting was attended by ten members. Robert Morrow presented a copy of his family book, William Morrow, From Ireland to Canada to Randolph County, to RCGS Library. We thank and appreciate him sharing his research with everyone. David Cole brought in two books that give a history of World War II. Thank you David for your donation.

Steeleville and Its Early Years written and compiled by Imogene Fiene, is at the printer. We plan to have them available in July. When we put in our order in May, the printer had other projects in process, but is trying to do ours as soon as possible. Please continue sending your orders to have one reserved. Books mailed out of state are $25 plus $5 s/h. In state, add $1.81 for tax.

REMINDER: RCGS HOURS: 9 AM TO 2 PM MONDAY, TUESDAY, & WEDNESDAY. APPOINTMENTS FOR 3RD SATURDAY, 9 AM – NOON, CAN BE ARRANGED. PLEASE CALL OR EMAIL.

REMINDER: The Heyls want to hear from you if you know of a cemetery or burial location that seems to have been forgotten. We're trying to make this listing as complete as possible.

Our next program is July 1st, 6:30 p.m. in the Chester Library when Alan Hoffman will present facts from the Journal he translated from French, Marquis de Lafayette in America, in 1824 and 1825. He will be concentrating his remarks on the information concerning our area of the journey.

We send our Condolences to the family of long time member Ella Mae Gross, 104, who passed away May 24, 2014. When her eyesight failed, she enjoyed listening to the RCGS Publications. She had taught many years in the one-room schools before the changes to larger schools and knew many stories about the life and ways of the county.

The next meeting is July 8, 2014, 2 p.m. at the RCGS Library in Steeleville.
