

Randolph County Genealogical Society Newsletter

March 12, 2018

A new year is here for us to enjoy and share our information and knowledge for the good of the society and other researchers.

Hopefully we will gain more members and have more researchers come in and search for their ancestors. We have worked hard to add to our inventory, whether it be births, marriages, deaths, news articles, cemeteries, etc. Everyone is welcome. Our office hours are Monday and Tuesday from 9:00 to 2:00. We look forward to seeing new face as well as the dedicated ones that volunteer each week.

On January 8, 2018, election of officers was held with the following results:

President: Naomi Owens

Vice President: Peg Fulton

Secretary: Lola Crowder

Treasurer: Imogene Fiene

Board Members: Emily Lyons, Midge Dobyns and Betty Qualls

Appointed positions were: Membership Chairman: Betty Qualls, Librarian: Midge Dobyns and Quarterly Editor: Lola Crowder.

Thanks to each of you for your service and dedication and for always being willing to step up to do extra work.

So far this year we have gotten a new flag to replace the old one, new cemetery books to add to the library, birth records are now updated by a mother's maiden name index, and our latest publication, The Eiker Funeral Home Book. This is the third and last one of the series.

For those who haven't paid their 2018 dues, please do. Also if your address has changed, don't forget to put the society on your list of places to change it.

Along with the fun times we have at RCGS, we also have heartfelt sadness for our members we have lost to death. Joyce Davitz was a dedicated volunteer on Tuesdays at the RCGS office. She will definitely be missed. We also send our sympathies to the families of members Mary Ann Miles and Edward Wicklein who passed away recently.

June James has retired after many years of service. She was a dedicated member on Mondays and she was the editor of the quarterly.

Now with the new daylight savings time to get accustomed to, may your journey of researching bring you love, peace and joy.

Naomi Owens
Naomi Owens, President
RCGS