Fort Wayne IN United States

RAYMOND R. MAZELIN, 79, of Kingman, Ariz., passed away Saturday, Sept. 20, 2003, at his home in Kingman. "He was a loving husband and father." Ray was born Nov. 16, 1923, in Berne. He moved to Kingman 16 years ago from Phoenix, was a U.S. Navy veteran, a Fort Wayne firefighter for 20 years, and was involved in Muscular Dystrophy. In Kingman, he was a past president of American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) and worked and volunteered at the Kathryn Heidenreich Adult Center. He was also a member of the Kingman Church of the Nazarene and, for many years, was a board member there. Ray is survived by his wife of 55 years, Mary (Johnson) Mazelin of Kingman; two daughters, Mrs. Edwin (Linda) Herman of Ossian, and Mrs. Robert (Carla) Maggard of Riverton, Utah; two sisters, Rebecca Keegan, Jacksonville Beach, Fla., Kathryn Disler, Bluffton; and four grandchildren. Internment at a later date in Berne.
