

Decatur Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Monday, July 27, 1903

Mrs. Archbold Dead - Well Known Woman Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Ellen Archbold died at her home on south Winchester street Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Death was due to dropsy with which the deceased had been suffering since the first of April. During the entire length of her illness she braved all pain with a cheerfulness of spirit which was possible through her trust in God. Mrs. Archbold was born in Root township near Monmouth and has resided in this county ever since her birth. Seven children are all the near relatives that survive her, Mr. Archbold having died fifteen years ago. The children are Mrs. J. M. Miller, Mrs. Washington Gilpen, Mrs. John Butler and Mrs. Homer Lower of Decatur, and Allen "Archbold of Marion, Ind., Henry Archbold of Butler, Pennsylvania and Charles Archbold of Philadelphia. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Mt. Pleasant church north west of town, at one o'clock. The services will be in charge of Rev. W. W. McCarty of Hoagland, assisted by Rev. J. C. White of this city. Interment will be made at the Reynolds Cemetery. The remains of Mrs. Archbold may be viewed from seven to eight this evening, and from eight to ten tomorrow morning.