MRS. CHARLES DRAPER IS DEAD

Well Known Lady Victim of the White Plague

Mrs. Charles Draper, a well known young woman of our city, died this morning at her home on Eleventh street after an illness dating back several years, death resulting from that dread disease, consumption. She was twenty-three years of age and was beloved by all who knew her, as she had numerous good traits and her many kind acts and deeds will be sadly missed by those who came in constant touch with her. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fritch (sic), who reside in the west part of the city and they are grief stricken over the sad event. The funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Evangelical church, of which she was a member, and interment will be made in the Salem cemetery. Rev. A. B. Haist will have charge of the services.
