Decatur

Juanita Joyce (Herndon) Gleason, 39, died Friday at Caylor-Nickel Medical Center, Bluffton.

Born in Adams County, she was a substitute teacher in Adams County Schools.

Surviving are her husband, Roy A.; her father and stepmother, James Kenny and Lela Herndon of Bluffton; two sons, Kenneth A. and Keith A., both of Decatur; two brothers, Daniel P. Herndon of Roanoke and Leslie K. Herndon of Ossian; two half-brothers, Stanley Smitley of Yoder and Gerald Smitley of Fort Wayne; four stepbrothers, Alan Claghorn of Milo, Iowa, Ted Claghorn of Bluffton, Brian Claghorn of Indianapolis and Bradley Claghorn of Bellbrook, Ohio; and a stepsister, Jean Holsinger of Wasilla, Alaska.

Services at 10 am Tuesday at New Covenant Fellowship Church. Calling an hour before services. Calling also from 6 to 8 pm today and from 2 to 5 and 6 to 8 pm Monday at Haggard & Sefton Funeral Home.

Burial in Beery Cemetery, west of Decatur. Memorials to the children's education fund.

Journal-Gazette, Allen County, IN; August 23, 1998, Page 12A

Contributed by Jim Cox