

News Banner, Wells County, Indiana; Monday, Oct. 24, 1966

MRS. BRANDYBERRY OF DECATUR DIES

Mrs. Ada F. Brandyberry, 81, of Decatur died Saturday at her home following a serious illness of one week.

She was born Sept. 16, 1885 in Elgin, O., a daughter of William and Elizabeth Gregg Barber. Her marriage was to Frank S. Brandyberry, who preceded her in death.

Mrs. Brandyberry was a member of the First Methodist Church of Decatur.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Luther Waddy of Mineral Wells, Tex., Miss Marcella Brandyberry of Llano, Tex., and Miss Florence Brandyberry of Decatur; three sons, Greg of Fort Wayne; Robert of Bluffton, and Chester of Decatur; one sister, Mrs. Charles Andrews of Decatur; two stepsisters, Mrs. Dora Fairchild of Mishawaka and Mrs. Martha Baker of Fort Wayne; 10 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Friends may call until the services Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Zwick Funeral Home. Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery with Rev. Melvin Seeger officiating.